List of 1,000 Common SAT Vocabulary Words with Latin and Greek Roots

This list is made free to students everywhere by FreeTestPrep.com and BWSEducationConsulting. All students should have the opportunity to master vocabulary for the SAT and PSAT at no cost. This list of SAT and PSAT words has the definitions of the words, the roots of the words, and the use of the words in sentences. Studying these vocabulary words will help you with the Critical Reading section of the SAT and the PSAT, as well as the GRE. This will be helpful on the SAT until it changes in April, 2016 and does not have as many difficult vocabulary words. You can print this list, share it with anyone, and link to it. Best of luck on your test!

Much of the English language is derived from Greek and Latin roots. These roots are found throughout many words on the SAT vocabulary section. In order to learn the most amount of words and be able to deduce what unknown words mean on the test, it is important to learn these roots.

For instance the root “crypt” means hidden or secret so the word “cryptic” means “puzzling, or secret”

- Abrasive: rough, coarse, harsh
  - Ab: away
  - Ras: scrape, shave
  - Ive: like
  “The teacher had an abrasive nature and was often harsh in her critiques.”

- Abasement: humiliation, degradation
  - Ab: away
  - ment: act of, result “Our coach abased us when we made mistakes on the court”

- Abrogate: cancel, deny, repeal
  - Ab: away
  - Rog: ask
  - Ate: to make “Since I found the book cheaper, I abrogated my original order”

- Abstain: desist, go without, withdraw
  - Ab: away
  - St: stand
  “During Ramadan, Muslims abstain from food during the daylight hours”

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio Abstemious: self denying, sparing in diet
   Ab: away
   ous: characterized by “Tina thought she needed to lose weight so she adopted an abstemious diet”

Abdicate: to give up
   ab: away
   dict: say, speak
   ate: to make
   “The prince didn’t feel qualified to be king so he abdicated the throne in favor of his little brother”

Abduction: a carrying away of a person against his will
   ab: away
   duct: lead
   ion: act of, state of, result of “The child was thought to be abducted, but it turned out he had just wandered off

Abjure: to recall, recant or repudiate under oath
   ab: away
   jur: law, justice
   “The witness later recanted his statement because they found out he was lying”

Abrade: to wear away the surface or some part of by friction
   ab: away
   rad: scrape, shave
   “The button’s on Casey’s phone were abraded from constant texting”

Abeyance: a state of suspension or temporary inaction
   ab: away
   ance: action, process, state
   “The committee couldn’t come to a decision so the problem was held in abeyance”

Abnormal: not conformed to the ordinary rule or standard
   ab: away
   al: relating to “Kelly’s behavior of blowing off homework was abnormal for a straight A student”

Manufacture: the making or producing of anything manu: hand
   act: do
   “The company manufactured products for the electronics company”

Activate: to cause to function
   act: do ate: cause, make
   “The screen lit up because pressing the button activated the computer”

Aerial: of pertaining to, or like the air aer: air
   al: pertaining to “Birds are considered aerial animals”

Aeronaut: one who navigates the air

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio. aero: air
naut: ship
“The hot air balloon driver was an aeronaut”

Aeronautics: the art or practice of flying aircraft
aer: air
naut: ship
ic: like, pertaining to “Jet pilots must go through aeronautics training.”

Aerostat: a balloon or other apparatus floating in or sustained by the air
aer: air
stat: stationary, still “The helium balloons were aerostat”

Agr- farming
Agrarian: pertaining to land
agr: farming
ian: native of, pertaining to “The agrarian products were sold at the farmer’s market”

Ambi-, amphi both, on both sides, around Amidextrous: having the ability of using both hands ambi: both dextr: right
ous: full of “Sam switched easily between his hands while dining showing his ambidexterity”

Ambiguous: having a double meaning ambi: both
ous: full of “The agreement between the countries was ambiguous and lead to many more conflicts”

Amphibious: living both on land and in water amphi: both bi: two
ous: full of “Since frogs can move between land and sea they are amphibious”

Ambul- walk, move Perambulate: to walk about per: through ambul: walk, move
ate: to make “The dog perambulated around the field looking for his frisbee”

Ambulate: to walk about ambul: walk, move
ate: to make “The concerned person ambulated back and forth lost in thought”
Ami-    love
Amicable: done in a friendly spirit
   ami: love
   able: capable of “The papers were signed amicably and the former partners parted as friends” Amity: friendship
   ami: love
   ity: state of, quality of “Lisa and Joey were in a state of amity prior to their fight” Pusillanimous: without spirit or bravery sil: quiet, or still amin: life spirit
   ous: characterized by “The pusillanimous soldier deserted his comrades right before the battle” Animate: to make alive anim: life, spirit
   ate: to make
   “The girl was animated as she talked about her favorite comedy” Captivating: to attract and hold attention to capt: take, hold “The painting’s rich colors were captivating and held everyone’s attention” Acceptable: pleasing to the receiver Ac: to, toward Cept: take, hold Able: capable of
  “The waitress found her large tip very acceptable” Conclusive: putting an end to debate or question especially by reason of irrefutability Con: with, jointly Clus: close
  Ive: like
  “The findings of the forensic technician were conclusive, even in court” Credible: believable Cred: believe, trust
  lble: capable of “The newspaper writer believed his source was credible, but his information ended up being false” Creditable: praiseworthy
  cred: believe, trust
  able: capable of
  “The president’s actions were creditable and eventually recognized by the Nobel Peace Prize Committee” Credulous: ready to believe anything
  cred: believe, trust
  ous: full of
“The trusting girl believed every lie her friend told her, she was quite credulous”

Credence: belief
- cred: believe, trust
- ence: action, state of, quality
  - “His previous actions gave his current sentiments credence”

discredit: the state of being held in low esteem
- dis: negation
- cred: believe, trust
  - “After lying about his credentials, the applicant was discredited”

accredit: to attribute to
- ac: to, toward
- cred: believe, trust
  - “Popular quotes are often accredited to multiple people”

Accumulate: to become greater in quantity or number
- ac: to, toward
- cumul: mass, heap
- ate: to make
  - “The little girl accumulated a lot of candy on Halloween.”

Cryptic: puzzling, enigmatic
- crypt: hidden
- ic: like, pertaining to
  - “The rationale behind the criminal’s actions were cryptic to the jury”

Cryptogram: Anything written in characters that are secret or so arranged as to have hidden meaning.
- crypt: hidden
- gram: writing
  - “The siblings wrote all their notes in cryptogram so their parents couldn’t read them”

Counterfeit: fake, false
- counter: against
- feit: to make, to do
  - “The mob was manufacturing counterfeit money to use in their industry”

Contraband: trade forbidden by law or treaty
- contra: against
  - “The kid traded contraband candy even though they weren’t allowed to at school”

Contradiction: The assertion of the opposite of that which has been said
- contra: against
- dict: say or speak
- ion: act of, state of, result of
  - “The boy told the girl he liked her but contradicted himself by dating someone else the next day”

contraposition: A placing opposite.
- contra: against
- posit: put
- ion: act of, state of, result of

---

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio
“The fork was first laid down, then the spoon was laid contraposition to the fork controversial: argumentative, contentious, disputatious contro: against vers: turn

al: relating to

There are many issues in the world of politics that are controversial.

counteract: to act in opposition to counter: against

Martin Luther King Jr. attempted to counteract racism in the United States.

Anticyclone: an atmospheric condition of high central pressure, with currents flowing outward anti: against, opposed to cycl: circle, ring

Cycloid: like a circle
cycl: circle, ring
oid: like

The design of her tattoo was cycloid.

Encyclical: intended for general circulation en: intensification, put into, or on cycl: circle, ring
al: relating to

“An encyclical letter was sent out from the principal of the school”

Epicycle: a circle that rolls upon the external or internal circumference of another circle epi: upon
cycl: circle, ring

“Tricycle: a three wheeled vehicle tri: three
cycl: circle, ring

“Matt learned to ride bikes by first riding on a tricycle”

Endemic: peculiar to some specified country or people en: put into or on, bring into the condition of, intensification dem: people
c: nature of, like

“Some species are endemic and only found in a certain country”

Pandemic: affecting a whole people or all classes pan: all
dem: people
c: nature of, like

“There are occasionally break outs of pandemic diseases”

Dendroid: like a tree dendr: tree
oid: like

“The dendroid bush was not actually even related to trees” Dendrology: the natural history of trees
dendr: tree
ology: study, science, theory
“The dendrology of a tree can sometimes be determined from its rings”

Dentifrice: any preparation used for cleaning the teeth dent: tooth ice: condition, state, quality Dermskin Dermatology: the branch of medical science which relates to the skin and its diseases derm: skin
ology: study, science, theory
“Because of her family’s history of skin cancer, Megan was interested in dermatology”

Epidermis: the outer skin epi: upon
derm: skin
“The girl marked her epidermis with a marker.”

Hypodermic: pertaining to the area under the skin hypo: under
derm: skin
ic: nature of, like “The hypodermic needle dispensed the necessary medication”

Taxidermy: the art or process of preserving dead animals tax: arrangement, order
derm: skin
“Western restaurants sometimes feature taxidermy animals.”

Dictum: a positive utterance
dict: speak
“The monarch issued a dictum about the recent rash of violence”

Edict: a decree issued by a sovereign or other authority
dict: speak

Indict: to bring formal accusation against in: into, towards
dict: speak
“The accused was indicted of multiple counts of burglary”

Malediction: curse, imprecation male: bad, wretched
dict: speak
“The witch uttered malediction against the people who imprisoned her”

Predict: to tell in advance pre: before in time or place
dict: speak
“The fortune-teller predicted the outcome of an important basketball game”

Benediction: utterance of good wishes ben: good, well
dict: speak
ion: act of, state of, result of
“At the end of the service, the pastor said a benediction to send people on their way”

Dominate: to influence controllingly domin: master
ate: to make “Plantation owners dominated their slaves and treated them like property”

Domineer: to rule with insolence
domin: master
eer: person who
“The CEO was domineering and had a lot of influence over people”

Predominate: superior in power pre: before in time, place, order or importance
domin: master
ate: to make
“The vice president has a lot of power but the president is predominate”

Endurable: tolerable en: put into or on, intensification dur: tolerable
able: capable of “Janice twisted her ankle but said the pain was endurable and that she would be okay.”

Egoism: selfishness ego: self ism: system, manner, condition “Ben exhibited extreme egoism and cared only for himself”

Anesthetic: loss of sensation an: not, without esth: feeling, sensation, beauty
ic: nature of, like “Poppy’s headache was so severe that she required anesthetic to stay at work”

Esthetic: pertaining to the sense of the beautiful
esth: feeling, sensation, beauty
ic: like, pertaining to “The art museum appealed to the group’s esthetic side”

Extraneous: external, foreign extra: outside, beyond
ous: characterized by “The ideas of the religion seemed extraneous to those of others”

Fidelity: loyalty
“Mia’s dog exhibited extraordinary fidelity even after she had lost him on vacation”

Fudicial: indicative of faith or trust

“...”

Infidel: unbeliever

“The Catholic Church often persecutes infidels”

Perfidy: deliberate breach of faith or trust

“The lie was an express act of perfidy”

Confidant: one to whom secrets are entrusted

“The psychologist was many people’s only confidant”

Diffidence: self distrust

“...”

Reflectible: able to cast back light

“The police officer’s glasses were reflectible” Deflect: to bend or turn aside de: down, away, completely, removal, reversal flect: bend
  “The girl deflected all of her friend’s questions about where she had been”

Inflexible: resistant to being bent in: not, without flex: bend
  ible: able, can do “The piece of metal was very inflexible”

Efflorescence: state or period of flowering ef: out upward, completely previous flor: flower
  ence: state or quality of “Springtime is often one of efflorescence for various species”

Flora: plants of a particular region or period
  flor: flower
  “Madagascar’s flora is very unique and sometimes seen nowhere else in the world”

Florid: reddish, rosy
  flor: flower
  “After being out in the wind, Josh’s cheeks were florid”

Fracture: a break
  fract: break
  “Dan fractured his wrist when he fell off his bike”

Refract: to alter or distort from a straight path undergone by a light ray or energywave in passing obliquely
  re: again
  fract: break

Fragile: easily broken frag: break
  “The delicate cup was so fragile it broke when it was knocked over”

Refrangible:
  re: again
  frag: break
  able: capable of being

Fugacious: fleeting fug: flee, run away, escape
  ous: characterized by “Damien’s thoughts were fugacious and he couldn’t hold onto them”

Subterfuge: evasion sub: at a lower position, lower in rank, nearly, approximately
  fug: flee, run away, escape
  “Many armies practice subterfuge to avoid detection” Functionary: an official funct: perform, work tion: state of beng ary: relating to, quality of, place “The dignitary was accompanied by numerous functionaries”

Engender: cause, produce en: put into or on, brng into the conditjon of, intesification gen: birth, production er: one, who “Farming engenders produce”

Generate: to produce or cause to be gen: birth production
  ate: become
  “The machine generated many electronic parts”

Genesis: creation
  gen: birth, production
  “The genesis of the world is explained by evolution”

Genitive: indication source, origin, possession, or the like
  gen: birth, production
  ive: having the nature of Genteel: well-bred or refined

  gen: birth, production
  “Many genteel people reside in New York’s upper east side”

Monogram: a character consisting of two or more letters interwoven into one mono: one
  gram: letter
  “When people get married they sometime create a monogram from their initials”

Phonogram: a graphic character symbolizing an articulate sound phon: sound
  gram: letter
  “

Anagram: the letters of a word or phrase so transposed as to make a difference word or phrase ana: again, against, back, up
  gram: letter
  “‘Spend it’ is an anagram of ‘stipend’”

Epigram: a pithy phrasing of a shrewd observation
  epi: upon gram: letter, written
  “

Lithograph: producing a writing using a specially prepared stone and ink

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio
litho: stone
graph: writing, written, recording

Monograph: a treatise on a particular subject mono: one
  graph: writing, recording, written “Many people have written monographs about particular presidents”

Typographical
  typ: stamp, model
  graph: writing, recording, written
  al: pertaining to

Barograph: recordings of a barometer baro: weight, pressure
  graph: writing, recording, written

Bibliography: a complete or selective list of works compiled upon some common principle bibl: book
  graph: writing, written, recording
  y: characterized by “The reference book was ended by a bibliography of all the references used to create it”

Cosmography: a description or representation of the main features of the universe.
  cosmo: universe
  graph: writing, recording, written
  y: characterized by “The students studied a cosmography for their science class”

Gratification: satisfaction grat: pleasing
  fic: make
  tion: state of being “The cake provided gratification for the sweet toothed child”

Gratuitous: voluntarily
  grat: pleasing
  ous: characterized by “The scholarship was given gratuitously by Freetestprep.com”

Gratuity: tip
  grat: pleasing
  ity: quality of
  “Because the waiter was so attentive, the customers left a large gratuity”

Ingratiate: to establish in the favor of good graces of others in: in, into towards, inside
  grat: pleasing
  ate: become “The new girl ingratiated herself with everyone at the party”

Introgression: entrance intro: inward, within
gress: to step, to go
sion: state of being “The bride’s introgression is many people’s favorite part of weddings”

Progression: a moving forward pro: in support of, acting for, motion forward
gress: to step, to go
sion: state of being “The progression of the disease was spelled out for the unfortunate patient”

Regress: to return to a former place or condition
re: again
gress: to step, to go “After making a lot of progress, Cindy regressed to her former fear of heights.”

Retrogression: moving backward retro: backward, behind
gress: to step, to go
sion: state of being “Bob retrogressed because something in the store window had caught his eye”

Transgress: to break a law trans: across
gress: to step, to go “Jails are full of transgressers”

Aggress: to make the first attack ag: movement to, change into, addition, increase
gress: to step, to go “Dogs don’t often aggress unless they feel threatened”

Digress: to turn aside from the main subject di: negation, removal, expulsion
gress: to step, to go “The teacher digressed from point of the lecture when she was reminded of another story”

Egress: any place of exit
e: out, upward, completely, previous
gress: to step, to go “The flight attendant pointed out the places of egress from the plane”

Retrograde: to move backward retro: backwards
grad: to step, to go “After the car accident, Jenny had retrograde amnesia and couldn’t remember anything prior to the crash”

Gradation: any process or change taking place through a series of stages
grad: to step, to go tion: act of, state of, result of “The color wheel shows the gradation of hues”

Gradient: moving or advancing by steps
grad: to step, to go “Skin tone is often determined in terms of gradients.”

Gynecocracy: female supremacy
- gyn: woman, female
- cracy: government, rule
- “There are a few gynecocracys around the world in which females are the top of society.”

Misogyny: hatred of women
- mis: hate
- gyn: woman, female
- “Talli accused her manager of being a misogynist when he treated her worse than the male employees.”

Philogynist: one who is fond of women
- phil: love, friendship
- gyn: woman, female
- “Phil the philogynist had many female friends.”
- ist: one who, that which

Exhausting: producing fatigue
- ex: from, out
- haust: draw
- “The work out was exhausting.”

Hemorrhage: discharge of blood from a ruptured or wounded blood-vessel
- hem: blood
- “There is always a risk of hemorrhage when people undergo surgery.”

Hemorrhoids: tumors composed of enlarged and thickened blood vessels
- hem: blood

Herbarium: a collection of dried plants scientifically arranged for study
- herb: grass, plant
- “The science room featured a large herbarium.”

Herbivorous: feeding on herbs or other vegetable matter, as animals
- herb: grass, plant
- vor: swallow
- ous: characterized by
- “Kola’s only eat eucalyptus and thus are herbivorous.”

Herbaceous: like an herb
- herb: grass, plant
- ous: characterized by
- “The food looked herbaceous but it was hard to tell.”

Heteromorphic: deviating from normal
- hetero: different
- morph: form, shape
- ic: pertaining to
- “The heteromorphic man wasn’t carrying an umbrella in the rain.”

Heterodox: at variance with any commonly accepted doctrine
- hetero: different
dox: opinion, tenet “Wiccan religions are often heterodoxic” heterodoxy: unlikeness of constituent parts hetero: different

gen: race, kind
ity: quality of “The soup had many heterogenic chunks” heterogenous: consisting of dissimilar elements or ingredients of different kinds hetero: different

gen: race, kind
ous: characterized by “The heterogenous mixture had many visible parts” homogeneity: congruity of parts homo: same

gen: race, kind
ity: quality of “The chef stirred the batter until it was homogeneous” homogeneous: made up of similar parts homo: same

gen: race, kind
ous: characterized by

homologous: identical in nature
homo: same
log: thought, word, speech
ous: characterized by “Because of evolution, many animals have homologous body parts” homonym: a word the same as another in sound and spelling but different in meaning homo: same

onym: name “do and dew are homonyms” homophone: a word pronounced the same but different in meaning homo: same

phon: sound

hydroelectric: pertaining to electricity developed water or stream hydro: water

hydrous: watery hydro: water
ous: characterized by “The residue was hydrous and dripped everywhere” hypercritical: faultfinding hyper: too much, over, excessive crit: judge

al: pertaining to “The hypercritical teacher criticized the students work often” Icon: an image or likeness icon: image Iconoclast: an image-breaker icon: image
clast: broken
“The iconoclast refused to go to church”

Fastidious: hard to please idio: peculiar, personal, distinct “The fastidious customer sent the worker back five times to find the right product” Idiom: use of words peculiar to a particular language
idio: peculiar, personal, distinct “Idioms vary from culture to culture and sometimes inhibit communication” Idiosyncrasy: a mental quality of habit peculiar to an individual
idio: peculiar, personal, distinct syn: with
y: characterized by “The flamboyant boy had many idiosyncratic behaviors” Isochronous: regularly, at equal time intervals iso: equal chron: time
ous: characterized by “Josh’s isochronous medication had to be taken every six hours” Isothermal: occurring to constant temperature
iso: equal
therm: heat, warm
al: pertaining to “The delicate pastry had to be cooked isothermally” Eject: to expel e: out, upward, completely, previously ject: throw “Callie ejected the CD from the sound system” Inject: to force into a passage in: not, without, in, into, towards, inside
ject: throw
“The medication was injected into the patients arm” Trajectory: the curve described by a projectile tra: across
ject: throw
“The trajectory of the golf ball was charted out by the player” forejudge: to judge of before hearing evidence fore: before
jud: law
“The case was so well publicized that it was hard to find a jury that hadn’t forejudged the accused” judgement: make a decision or form an opinion objectively
jud: law
ment: condition of “The baby sitter used judgement to decide which sibling was at fault” judicature: distribution and administration of justice by trial and judgement
jud: law
cat: down “Judicature is handed down by the judicial branch of our government” judicial: pertaining to the administration of justice
jud: law
ical: pertaining to “The parents were judicial in their handing out of punishment to their children” judiciary: system of courts of justice in a country
jud: law
y: characterized by “After the case was appealed, it moved higher up the judiciary system” judicious: prudent
jud: law
ous: characterized by “People should be more judicious in their fat intake” prejudice: judgement or opinion formed before examination of facts pre: before in time, place, order or importance
jud: law
“The professor was prejudiced against the student because he hadn’t like her sibling” extrajudicial: happening out of court extra: outside, beyond
jud: law
ical: pertaining to “Vigilantes perform acts extrajudicially” Junction: condition of being joined junct: join
tion: state of being “There was an accident at the junction of Main Street and 1st Street today” juncture: articulation, joint, seam
junct: join
“The knee is a juncture of the lower leg bones and the femur” adjunct: something joined with another thing but holding a subordinate place ad: movement to, change into, addition or increase junct: join
“The adjunct professor didn’t have as many privileges as the others” conjunction: the state of being joined together con: with, jointly, completely

junct: join
tion: state of being “The medication was used in conjunction with therapy for the injury” disjunctive: helping or serving to disconnect or separate dis: negation, removal, expulsion

junct: join
ive: having the nature of “Communication between the groups was disjunctive”

Juvenile: characteristic of youth juven: young
“The juvenile boys played football in the mud”

Rejuvenate: to restore youth
re: again
juven: young
ate: become
“The cream was supposed to rejuvenate facial skin”

Labyrinth: Maze
lab: work
“The city’s complicated streets seemed like a labyrinth”

Labrinthine: complicated, highly convoluted “The labyrinthine design had many intersecting lines” syllabus: outline of a subject, course, lecture or treatise collaborate: To labor or cooperate with another or others, especially in literary or scientific pursuits.

Laborious: toilsome
lab: work
“The laborious work lasted for hours and seemed to accomplish very little”

Laceration: a cut lacer: tear
tion: state of being “After the boy fell off his bike he had a laceration on his knee”

Lachrymose: tearful, sad lacr: cry, tears

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio
“The people were lachrymose after watching the movie”

Lactic: of, pertaining to, or obtained from milk lact: milk
  ic: pertaining to “The lactic solution was sustenance for the baby”

Lacteal: consisting of, or resembling milk, milky lact: milk
  al: pertaining to “Sometimes the stars and skies look lacteal which is how the ‘Milky Way’ got its name”

Lateral: directed toward the side later: side
  al: pertaining to “The defensive player moved laterally to block the offense”

Bilateral: two sided
  bi: two
  later: side
  al: pertaining to “The bilateral promise changed the country boundaries of two nations”

Lexicon: dictionary lex: word, law, reading “Every generation has had its own lexicon of slang terms”

Alleviate: to make easier al: movement to, change into, addition or increase lev: lift, light
  ate: become
  “The medication alleviated the girl’s headache”

Liberate: to set free liber: free
  ate: become
  “The dog felt liberated when he was let off his leash”

Liberality: generosity
  liber: free
  ity: quality of “The church’s liberality saved many people from poverty”

Lingua: the tongue
  lingu: language, tongue
  “The hot pizza burned Marco’s lingua when he bit into it”

Lingual: pertaining to the tongue
  lingu: language, tongue
  al: act or process of Linguist: specialist in linguistics
    lingu: language, tongue
    “The linguist knew many dead languages and could translate a variety of texts”

Linguistics: science of language
    lingu: language, tongue

Sublingual: situated under the tongue sub: at a lower position, lower in rank, nearly
    lingu: language, tongue
    al: act or process of Lithograph: a print made by printing from stone lith: rock, mineral, fossil graph: draw, write

Monolith: obelisk, column, large statue
    mono: one
    lith: rock, mineral, fossil
    “The Washington monument is a monolith”

Neolithic: pertaining to the last phase of the stone age neo: new
    lith: rock, mineral, fossil
    ic: pertaining to “Archeologists have discovered many neolithic artifacts”

Anthracite: hard coal anthr:
    ite: rock, mineral, fossil “Before oil, many boats were powered by anthracite”

Grandiloquent: speaking in a lofty style grand: grand loqu: speak
    ent:
    “The politician’s grandiloquent speech alienated many of his would be voters”

Loquacious: talkative
    loqu: speak
    ous: characterized by “The two loquacious friends hadn’t seen each other in a while and talked incessantly”

Soliloquy: a monologue sol: alone, only
    loqu: speak
    y: characterized by “Shakespeare is famous for the many soliloquys in his plays”

Colloquial: characteristic or appropriate to ordinary conversation col: with, together
loqu: speak
al: pertaining to “Colloquials shouldn’t be used in formal papers”

Eloquent: exercising the power of fluent and forceful speech
e: out, upward, completely, previous
loqu: speak
ent:
“The eloquent acceptance speech brought many people to tears” elocution: person’s manner of speaking aloud in public
e: out, upward, completely, previous locu: speak
tion: state of being “Speech classes teach students proper elocution”

Interlocutor: perso who takes part in a conversation or dialogue inter: between, smong
locu: speak
or: one, who “Peter and Cindy were in the middle of a conversation when an interlocutor interrupted them”

Elucidate: to bring out more clearly the facts concerning
e: out, upward, completely, previous luc: light
ate: become
“The preacher elucidated some of the more complicated parts of the text”

Lucid: mentally sound
luc: light
“In order to stand trial, people have to be lucid”

Translucence: permitting light to pass through, but diffusing it trans: across
luc: light
ence: state or quality of “The translucent colored glass produced a red shadow”

Illuminate: to supply with light il: in, into, towards, inside lumin: light
ate: become
“The lamp illuminated the room with a yellow glow”

Luminary: celestial body
lumin: light
ary: relating to, quality, place where “The luminaries lite up the night sky”

Luminescent: showing an increase of light
   - lumin: light
   - escent: in the process of
   - “The fader switch made the lights luminescent”

Luminosity: quality of being intellectually brilliant
   - lumin: light
   - ity: state, quality of
   - “The luminosity of the applicant impressed the interviewers”

Macrocosm: great world or universe
   - macro: large, great
   - cosm: universe
   - “The macrocosm incorporates everything in the world”

Magnanimous: generous in treating or judging others
   - magn: large, great
   - anim: breath
   - ous: characterized by
   - “The magnanimous man always gave people a second chance”

Magnate: a person of rank or importance
   - magn: large, great
   - ate: become, cause, make
   - “The magnate out ranked everyone else in the company”

Magnificent: making a splendid appearance or show
   - magn: large, great
   - “The wedding was magnificent and beautiful”

Magnitude: importance
   - magn: large, great
   - “The issue was of great magnitude and was the main one to be discussed at the meeting”

Malady: disorder or disease of the body
   - mal: bad, ill, wrong
   - ady: characterized by
   - “The infant’s malady prevented her from digesting properly”

Malcontent: dissatisfied with current conditions
   - mal: bad, ill, wrong
   - “Jimmy was malcontent with his living situation”

Malefactor: one who injures another
   - mal: bad, ill, wrong
   - fact: make
   - or: on who, that which
   - “The principal was having trouble deciding who the malefactor was in the schoolyard brawl”

Maleficent: michievous
   - mal: bad, ill, wrong
fic: make
“The maleficent boy blamed his little sister for the mess in their play room”

Malevolence: ill will mal: bad, ill, wrong
vol: wish
ence: action, state of, quality “Betty felt such malevolence for her ex-boyfriend that people were a little concerned”

Malign: to speak evil of
mal: bad, ill, wrong
“The newspaper malign the corrupt politician”

Malignant: evil in nature
mal: bad, ill, wrong
ant: performing, agent
“The malignant wizard performed many curses on innocent people”

Maneuvre: planned and regulated movement man: hand er: on who, that which “Chole had trouble maneuvring her car around the pole”

Manumit: to set free from bondage man: hand
mit: thread
“Abraham Lincoln was instrumental in manumitting the slaves”

Pyromania: compulsion to set things on fire pyro: heat, fire
mania: madness, insanity, excessive desire “Pyromaniacs are often the perpetrators behind arson”

Bibliomania: passion for collecting books
bibl: book
mania: madness, insanity, excessive desire “The bibliomaniac had three rooms filled with books”

Monomania: psychosis characterized by thoughts confined to one idea mono: one
mania: madness, insanity, excessive desire “OCD people may also have monomania and have a single compulsion”

Marine: pertaining to the sea mari: sea
ine: having the nature or characteristic of “The marine setting made people calm”

Maritime: connected to the sea
mari: sea
“The sailors maritime adventures were chronicled in a journal” Maternal: pertaining to the mother mater: mother
  al: relating to “The older sister was very maternal to her younger siblings.”

Emigrant: one who moves from one place to settle in another
  e: out, upward, completely, previous
  migr: move
  ant: performing, agent
  “The emigrant moved from the city to the suburbs”

Immigrant: a foreigner who enters a country to settle there im: in, into, towards, inside
  migr: move
  ant: performing, agent
  “Natasha was an immigrant to the United States.”

Migrant: wandering
  migr: move
  ant: performing, agent “Gypsies are often time a migrant people”

Migratory:
  migr: move
  ory: relating to, quality, place where “Some migratory birds move from place to place”

Monumental: exceptionally great mon: one ment: mind
  al: relating to “The chief said this case was of monumental importance”

Immortalize: to bestow unending fame on im: not, without mort: death
  ize: to make like “Many presidents have been immortalized in statues and memorials all over Washington D.C.”

Immutable: unchangeable
  im: not, without mut: change
  able: able, can do “Some laws of the universe are immutable”

Mutation: the act or process of change
  mut: change
  tion: act of, state of, result of “Gene mutation can lead to abnormalities in appearance or behavior” Mutilate: disfigure
   mut: change
   ate: cause, make
   “The car crash mutilated Paul’s face”

Permutation:
   per: thoroughly, through
   mut: change
   tion: act of, state of, result of Transmute: to change in nature, substance or form

   trans: across
   mut: change

Mythical: imaginary or fictitious myth: story
   al: relating to “Ancient religions are made up of mythical creatures and stories”

Notable: worthy of note or notice not: letter, note, paper
   able: able, can do
   “The book was notable for it’s beautiful language” noxious: harmful, poisonous, lethal innocuous: harmless

Nu-        nod

Nuzzle: cuddle, snuggle
   nu: nod
   “The dog nuzzled the girl’s leg to get her attention”

Nullify: to counter, make unimportant null: none fy: make “The paperwork nullified the previous agreement”

Numerous: very many numer: number
   ous: characterized by
   “There were numerous examples of post modernist art at the museum”

Obfuscate: deliberately making something difficult to understand ob: against fusc: dark
   ate: cause, make
   “The poet obfuscated his main point with his complicated language”

Objective: unbiased “Teachers are supposed to be objective in their grading”

Oblique: indirect, slanting

“...

Obscure: difficult to understand or partially hidden

“...

Obdurate: stubborn

“...

Obtrusive: ob: against

“...

Pseudapostle: a pretended or false apostle

“...

Pseudonym: a fictitious name

“...

Placid: calm, peaceful

“...

Placate: To bring from a state of angry or hostile feeling to one of patience or friendliness

“...

Plaudit: statement giving strong praise

“...
explosion: a sudden and violent outbreak ex: out, upward, completely, previous plos: clap
   ion: act of, state of, result of “When the violinist finished her piece there was an explosion of applause”

Replete: full
   re: again
   plet: fill “The dorm came replete with dirt, dust and bugs” complement v. To make complete

   com: with, together
   ple: fill
   ment: condition of “The colors of the painting complemented each other nicely” deplete: To reduce or lessen

   de: down, away, completely, removal, reversal
   ple: fill
   “The child slowly depleted his cup of juice” incomplete adj. Lacking some element, part, or adjunct necessary or required

   in: not, without
   com: with, together
   ple: fill “Since the homework was incomplete, Stan didn’t receive full marks on his homework”

Plethora: an excess pleth: full “There was a plethora of feathers on the floor after the pillow ripped”

Reprehensible: shameful, very bad
   re: again
  prehens: grasp
   ible: able, can do “The lie to her friends was a reprehensible act that ruined their friendship” inapprehensible: Not to be understood in:
   prehens: grasp
   ible: able, can do “The acts of violence committed by prison guards was inapprehensible to the general management” incomprehensible: Not understandable
   in: not, without
   com: with, together
   prehens: grasp
   ible: able, can do “The homework assignment was completely incomprehensible” prehensible: Capable of being grasped
  prehens: grasp
  ible: able, can do “Dogs have prehensile: Adapted for grasping or holding prehens: grasp
  ile:
  “Monkeys have prehensile tails” prehension: The act of laying hold of or grasping prehens: grasp
  ion: act of, state of, result of
  “
comprehensive: of large scope
  com: with, together
  prehens: grasp ive: causing

Re-, red- back, again Rescind: retract, repeal predecessor n. An incumbent of a given office previous to another -redemption n. The recovery of what is mortgaged or pledged, by paying the debt
  -redound n. Rebound
  -relieve: to easy or alleviate from pain
  -resolute: firmly determined
  -regretted: to feel sorrow or remorse for Sanguine: reddish, ruddy “After running around in the cold the young boys cheeks were sanguine” Sensible: having using or showing good sense

Tangent: on a completely different or divergent course tang: touch ent: full of “The presenter was reminded of a story and went off on a tangent story” Tangible: can be touched tang: touch
  ible: able, can do
  “The law requires tangible evidence for certain hearings” tangency: the state of touching
  tang: touch
  ency: action, state of, quality “The line was in tangency to the circle” Intangible: not perceptible to the touch
  in: not, without
  tang: touch
  ible: can do, able “Atheists don’t believe in God because the evidence is intangible”

Tardy: slow, late, overdue, delayed tard: slow
  y: characterized by “The girl missed her bus so she was tardy to school” Tenacious: stubborn, resolute, holding firm to a purpose ten: hold ious: characterized by “The tenacious candidate wouldn’t budge on his agenda” glutinous: sticky glutin: glu
  ous: characterized by “The glutinous substance held the two pieces of paper together” retention: the keeping of a thing within one’s power re: again
  ten: hold
  tion: state of being
  “
Tenuous: flimsy, not solid
  ten: hold
  ous: characterized by “After their fight, the relationship between the coworkers were tenuous” Covert: hidden, undercover co: with, jointly, completely
  vert: turn
  “The covert agents infiltrated the mob” averse: reluctant a: not, without
  vers: turn “Vince was not averse to taking risks” conversion: Change from one state or position to another, or from one form to another con: with, jointly, completely
  vers: turn
  ion: act of, state of, result of “When the ice melted, the ice underwent conversion” introversion: The act of turning or directing inward, physically or mentally

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio intro: within
vers: turn
ion: act of, state of, result of “After his melt down, the boy turned to introversion to resolve his issues” inverse adj. Contrary in tendency or direction in: not, without

vers: turn
“No that’s the inverse direction of where we want to be going!”

revert: To return, or turn or look back, as toward a former position or the like
re: again
vert: turn “After our revision failed we reverted to the original plan” avert: To turn away or aside a: not, without

vert: turn “Leslie averted her eyes during the violent scene in the movie” divert v. To turn from the accustomed course or a line of action already established di:negation, removal, expulsion

vert: turn
“The presenter asked the group to divert their attention to the edge of the screen where there was a picture” divertible: Able to be turned from the accustomed course or a line of action already established di: negation, removal, expulsion

vert: turn
ible: able, can do “Lacy’s attention was easily divertible when her favorite things were involved” evert: To turn inside out

e: out, upward, completely, previous
vert: turn

incontrovertible: not open to question or dispute
in: not, without contro: against
vert: turn
ible: able, can do “The ideas set forth by church were considered incontrovertible”

Reciprocate: to give, feel, receive in return Cap-, -cip-, capt-, -cept-: hold, take Prefix: Re-, red-: back, again Suffix: ate: to make “Evan reciprocated the feelings Julia said she had for him” Capricious:
  Capri: goat icious: full of Esoteric: understood by or meant for only the select few who have special knowledge or interest; Eso: within Suffix: like, pertaining to “The reference to the movie was pretty esoteric” Erroneous: containing error, mistaken, incorrect
  Err: stray
  Suffix: ous: full of “It was an erroneous assumption on the part of the police that Angela has committed the crime” Impugned: to challenge as false Prefix: im: not Pugn: fight
  “Caitlin impugned her mother’s decision that she was at fault in the fight with her brother” Mollified: to soften in feeling or temper Moll: soft
  “The puppy mollified Emma’s angry mood” Benevolent: characterized by or expressing goodwill or kindly feelings Ben: good, well
  Vol: wish
  Suffix: ent: full of “The benevolent man handed out Valentine’s on the corner” Mercurial: changeable, volatile, flighty, erratic Mer: part
  “The mercurial weather in Ohio changed a lot from day to day” Corrosive: having the quality of eating away, erosive Ros: gnaw
  Ive: like
  “The corrosive acid ate through the beaker that was supposed to be containing it” Phlegmatic: having a stolid or unemotional disposition Phleg: heat
  lc: like, pertaining to “The phlegmatic man showed no emotion during the documentary on urban violence” Cosmopolitan: at home all over the world Cosmo: universe
  Poli: city
  “The cosmopolitan girl traveled a lot and never felt lost” Reconcile: to accept or be resigned to something not desired
  Re: again, back
Con: with, together
Ile: pertaining to capable of “Rapunzel reconciled herself to the fact that she would never leave the tower”

Appalling: causing dismay or horror Ap: movement to or toward, in addition to Pal: stake
“Images the PETA uses in their anti-violence campaigns are often appalling”

Irrelevant: not applicable or pertinent Ir: not, un-
Lev: lift, light
ant: performing, agent
“The fact that he was doing poorly in school was irrelevant to his work situation”

Benign: having a kindly disposition
Ben: good, well
“The man looked intimidating but he was completely benign”

Docile: easily managed or handled Doc: teach
Ile: pertaining to, capable of “The docile dog was very trainable and learned to behave quickly”

Sanctimonious: making a hypocritical show of religious devotion Sanc: holy
Tim: be afraid
Ous: full of “The sanctimonious movie was condemned by religious leaders”

Perused: to read through with thoroughness Per: thoroughly, through Us: use
“Jillian perused the book before taking her English test”

Obliterated: to remove or destroy all traces of Ob: against Liter: letter
Ate: to make “The bomb obliterated all traces of the field it was tested in”

Panacea: a remedy for all disease or ill
pan: all
“The company said the medicine was a panacea”

Provocation: something that incites or instigates pro: for, forward
voc: voice
tion: act of, state of, result of “The police’s action were provocation for the students’ riot” Miscreants: villainous
- mis: hate
- cre: make
- ant: performing, agent
  - “The miscreants ransacked the village and took all their food”

Revisionists: an advocate of revision, especially in terms of politics and religion
- re: back, again
- vis: see
- ist: one who, that which
  - “Martin Luther King was a revisionist of the Christian faith”

Anomalies: deviation from the common rule
- A: away
- Homal: even, flat
  - “The food tasting good at the dining hall was an anomaly on the college’s campus”

Impetuous: characterized by sudden or rash action
- Im: not, un-
- Pet: strive towards
- Ous: full of
  - “The impetuous man was prone to expressing his feelings with little forethought”

Tacit: understood without being openly expressed
- tac: be silent
  - “There was a tacit understanding between the husband and wife”

Inevitable: unable to be avoided, evaded, or escaped; certain; necessary
- in: not, without
- vit: life
- able: able, can do
  - “It was inevitable that the mother would discover her son’s lie”

Diplomacy: negotiations between government officials
- dipl: double, two fold
- acy:
  - “The diplomacy between the two nations was tenuous”

Finagle: to trick, swindle or cheat
- fin: end
- agle:
  - “The peddler finagled a high price for the counterfeit bag”

Interchangeable: capable of being put or used in the place of each other
- inter: among, between
- able: able, can do
  - “The two terms were interchangeable because they had the same meaning”

Collude: to act together through a secret understanding
- col: strain
  - “The young boys colluded in order to steal cookies fresh from the oven” conspire: to agree to do something wrong, evil, or illegal
   con: with, together
   spir: breathe
   “The coach _conspired_ with his team to make sure they would win in the finals” reimburse: to make payment for losses incurred
   re: again
   burs: pouch
   “The store _reimbursed_ Mr. Smith for the faulty washing machine he bought” venture: an undertaking involving uncertainty of the outcome vent: come
   “The cat _ventured_ to the edge of the pool, took one step too far and fell in” objectify: to present as an object
   ob: against ject: cast, throw fy: make “They train soldiers to _objectify_ the enemy so they won’t react as much to the violence” vicariously: performed, exercised, received or suffered in the place of another vic: change
   ous: characterized by “The quiet girl lived _vicariously_ through the characters in her favorite adventure novel” voluminously vol: fly, wish collaboration: to work jointly with others

   col: with, together
   labor: toil
   tion: act of, state of, result of “The final book was a _collaboration_ of multiple author’s work” hostility: enmity, antagonism, unfriendliness host: enemy
   ity: state of, quality “Jane couldn’t understand the _hostility_ with which the cashier responded” heretical: pertaining to opinion or doctrine at variance with the orthodox or accepted doctrine her: clinging
   “The church claimed that the acts of the shady pastor were _heretical_” incoherent: without logical or meaningful connection
   in: not, without co: with, together
   her: clinging
   “The texting was _incoherent_ and had many mistakes” sagacious: having or showing acute mental discernment sagac: wise
   ious: characterized by

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio
“The sagacious guru gave his followers very good advice” reenumeration:

   re: back, again
   numer: number

acrid: sharp or biting, especially in taste or smell acr: sharp, pungent, bitter id: something connected to or belonging to “The acrid smelling food seemed very unappetizing” acrophobia: fear of heights acro: height, summit, tip phob: fear

   “Nelson’s acrophobia prevented him from climbing the mountain with his friends” resplendent: shining, gleaming, splendid re: back, again

   plen: full
   ent:
   “The resplendent outfit reflected the glowing lights” acuity: sharpness, acuteness, keenness acu: sharp

   ity: state of, quality “Tommy’s mental acuity helped him score very high on the SAT!”

polemical: a controversial argument, as one against some opinion polem: war
   ical: pertaining to “There have been numerous polemic books written throughout the ages” equivocate: to use ambiguous or unclear expressions equ: even, level

   voc: voice
   ate: become
   “

timorous: full of fear, fearful
   tim: be afraid
   ous: characterized by “The timorous stray dog wouldn’t approach the man trying to rescue it” brevity: shortness of time or duration brevi: brief, short (time) “The brevity of life indicates that we should live each moment to its fullest” largess: generous bestowal of gifts larg: large “Nina was able to pay her rent because of the largess of her parents” histrionic: overly emotional in behavior or speech, self consciously emotional histri: actor

ic: nature of, like “The mother became histrionic when her son was in a mild car accident” obstreperous: resisting control or restraint in a difficult manner

ob: against

alacrity: promptness of response al: movement to or toward, in addition to acr: sharp, pungent, bitter
ity: state of, quality “Toby’s alacrity surprised the teacher” deleterious: injurious to health, harmful

de: from, away from, removing, down

euphemism: substitution of a mild, indirect or vague expression for one thought to be offensive eu: well, good ism:

potable: suitable for drinking pot: drink
able: able, can do “It was questionable whether the water from the well was potable” ignominious: marked or characterized by disgrace or shame ig:

nomin: name
ous: characterized by “After the scandal with the money, the man was ignominious” cacophony: harsh, discordance of sound; dissonance caco: bad

phon: sound
“What was supposed to be an orchestra sounded more like cacophony” saccharin: sweet, white soluble powder sacchar: sugar

“The saccharin dessert was chocolatey and delicious!” sacrosanct: extremely sacred or inviolable sancr: sacred sanc: holy
“The relationship between a priest and his parishioner is sacrosanct” exculpate: to clear from a charge of guilt or fault

ex: from, out culp: blame, fault
ate: cause, make
“The judge exculpated the suspect when DNA cleared him of all charges”

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio impecunious: poor im: not, without pecun: money
  ious: characterized by “The impecunious family couldn’t afford new clothes for their kids” precipice: high cliff
  pre: before cip: hold, take capacious: able to hold a lot cap: hold, take “The capacious suitcase was a favorite of the teenage girl’s” ameliorate: improve, make better melior: better “After being elected, the mayor diverted funds to park amelioration” capitulate: to surrender
  capit: head
  “The capture the flag team capitulated after being behind by many points” ossify: to cause to harden like bone oss: bone “Ossification turns cartilage into bone” ostentatious: rich and showy os: against tent: hold “Bambi’s costume was ostentatious and a little tasteless” expatriate
  ex: from, out parti: part sanguinary sanguin: blood maelstrom mael: bad strom:
unctuous: characterized by excessive piousness or moralistic fervor unct: hooked
  “The unctuous girl wanted everyone to convert to her religion” caustic: capable of burning, corroding or destroying living tissue caus: burn, heat
  ic: nature of, like “The caustic substance caused third degree burns” palisade: a fence of stakes set firmly in the ground
  pal: stake
  “Tom painted the palisade with white wash” celerity: swiftness, speed celer: quick
ity: state of, quality of “The rabbit’s celerity didn’t end up helping him win the race against the turtle” falacious: deceptive, misleading fall: false
ious: characterized by “Juan’s fallacious nature was similar to the boy who cried wolf” malefactor: person who violates the law, criminal mal: bad, wretched
fact: make “Jails are full of malefactors that are being punished” malingering: to pretend illness mal: bad “Jessica malingered so the nurse let her go home” antediluvian: very old, old fashioned ante: before, in front of, prior to
ian: native of, pertaining to “Grandma Cooper was antediluvian in her views of the way a young lady should dress” antropocentrism: regarding the human being as the central fact if the universe anthropo: human centr: center
ism: system, manner, condition “People who believe in anthropocentrism don’t regard animals as equal to humans” antiquated: continued from, resembling or adhering to the past anti: before, in front of, prior to “Antiquated furniture is very popular in interior design” parity: equality, as in amount, status or character par: part
ity: state of, quality “There isn’t much parity in young people’s athletics” servile: slavishly submissive or obsequious serv: save, protect, serve
ile:
“The dogs servile nature clearly showed that it had suffered abuse” apathetic: having or showing little or no emotion
a: not, without path: feel, hurt
ic: nature of, like “Jason was apathetic to the plight of his roommate” chronicle: an historical account of events arranged in order of time
chron: time
“The history book chronicled the events leading up to World War II” felicitous: well suited for the occasion, as an action, manner or expression felic: happy, merry
  ous: characterized by “Olivia was felicitous at the Christmas themed party” profundity: a profoundly deep place

  pro: for, forward
  fund: bottom
  ity: state of, quality
  “The profundity of the sermon left many at the service at a loss for words” circuitous: roundabout, not direct circ: circle

  ous: characterized by “The circuitous roads left the tour bus quite lost in the middle of the city” circumlocution: a roundabout or indirect way of speaking circum: around locut: speak

  ion: act of, state of, result of “Politicians often employ circumlocution to avoid being tied to a particular statement” discern: to perceive by the sight or some other sense or by intellect dis: negations, removal, expulsion cern: sift

  “

matriarchy: family, society, community matr: mother arch: ruler “While American society may be characterized by patriarchy, our deviant family was definitely a matriarchy” vacuous: without contents, empty vac: empty

  ous: characterized by “The vacuous bag had just been emptied of snacks by the students” circumspect: watchful and discreet circum: around spect: look “The guard was circumspect in his rounds of the building” vagrant: a person who wanders about idly and has no permanent home vag: wanter

  ant: performing, agent
  “Vagrants wander around cities looking for somewhere to stay” arable: capable of producing crops, suitable for farming ar: plow, till

  able: able, can do “Ohio’s vast quantities of arable land make it very suitable for farming” circumvent: to go around or bypass circum: around

vent: come
“The son circumvented his mother by going to his father” partisan: an adherent or supporter of a person, group, party or cause parti: part

an: native of, pertaining to “The democratic partisan handed out fliers for his candidate on the street corner” solace: comfort in sorrow, misfortune, or trouble

sol: alone, only “Penny found solace sitting on the dock over her family’s lake” vapid: lacking liveliness vap: lack of
id: something connected to or belonging to “The vapid girl had very little to talk about other than herself” somnambulist: an abnormal condition of sleep in which motor acts are performed somn: sleep
ambul: walk, move around
ist: one who, that which “Somnambulists are at risk for injury especially if they have stairs in their house” archaic: marked by the characteristics of an earlier period archeo: ancient
ic: nature of, like “The archaic artifacts were found by the archeologists” patronize: to behave in an offensively condescending manner toward part: father
ize: to make (like)
“The father patronized his daughter for the mistakes on her final”

Atheist: unbeliever in God
a: not, without the: god ist:
“The atheist refused to go to church with his Catholic friends” misnomer: unsuitable name

mis: hate
nom: arrangement, law
“It was a misnomer to name the Pitbull ‘Fluffy’” vilification
vil: cheap peremptory
per: thoroughly, through epmt: buy augment: to make larger aug: grow, increase
ment: mind
“As the birthday girl breathed into the balloon it augmented” intransigence: refusing to agree or compromise in: in, on
trans: across
“The intransigent employer wouldn’t even speak to the Union representative about increasing wages” peripatetic: walking or travelling about peri: around pat: be open “Peripatetic herds of animals wander around Yellowstone National Park” vitriolic: bitter hatred vitr: glass “Vitriolic was the only way to describe the relationship between the two enemies” moratorium
mor: mortal, death “moribund: being in the state of dying mor: mortal, death
“Hospice is a home for moribund people” vociferous: vehement outcry
voc: voice
“The class responded vociferously to the anti-gay statements” archetype: universally understood symbol arche: ancient typ: stamp, model
“A circle with a vertical line and two smaller radially lines coming off of it is an archetype for peace” paucity: smallness of quantity pauc: few “Because of the paucity, the girls shared the cake” sophomoric: immature soph: wise “The sophomoric girl laughed at really stupid jokes” peccadillo: minor offense
pecc: sin
“Johnny’s peccadillo earned him a time out on the stairs” inimical: not favorable in: not, un (negation) imic: friend “Inimical conditions meant the sixteen year olds couldn’t go to the movies” veracity: truth, accuracy ver: true
ac: sharp, pointed “The veracity of her statement couldn’t be determined” aberration: something that differs from the norm

  ab: away
  err: stray
  “The odd actions of the fraternity were an aberration” abnegation: denial of comfort to oneself

  ab: away
  neg: say no
  “Ascetics often practice abnegation and possess no material goods” abscond: to sneak away and hide

  ab: away
  scend: climb

absolution: freedom from blame, guilt, sin
  ab: away
  solut: loosen, set free “People go to confession seeking absolution from God” abstruse: hard to comprehend abs: away

  trus: thrust
  “The abstruse math problem confused all the students” accede: to agree ac: movement to or toward, in addition to ced: go

  “The country acceded to the terms of the treaty” accessible: obtainable, reachable

  ac: movement to or toward, in addition to cess: to go

accolade: high praise, special distinction
  ac: movement to or toward, in addition to
  col: strain
  “The books distinctive interpretation of the war earned it many accolades” accord: an agreement

  ac: movement to or toward, in addition to cord: heart
  “Amanda and her roommate made an accord about the rules of the room” accretion: slow growth in size or amount ac: movement to or toward, in addition to cre: make

  “The investment accreted $100 over three years” acerbic: biting, bitter in tone or taste

  ac: sharp, pointed
  “The officer’s acerbic tone intimidated the traffic violater” acquiesce: to agree without protesting ac: movement to or toward, in addition to qui: rest

“Because of the subpoena, the doctor acquiesced the court’s request” acrimony: bitterness, discord acri: sharp, pungent, bitter “Her acrimony was in opposition to her usually forgiving and cheerful manner” acumen: keen insight

acu: sharp
“Four years of college gave Elliot a strong political acumen” acute: sharp, severe

acu: sharp
“Fred gave Roberta last minute directions so her turn was very acute” adamant: impervious, immovable, unyielding ad: movement to or toward, in addition to man: stay “Stephanie was adamant that the tigers in India needed to be protected” adhere: to stick to something ad: movement to or toward, in addition to

her: clinging “Tape adhered the poster to the wall” advocate: to argue in favor of something ad: movement to or toward, in addition to voc: voice

ate:
“The lawyer became an advocate for victim’s rights” aggrandize: to increase or make greater ag: movement to or toward, in addition to grand: grand

ize:
“The bank account aggrandized over time with interest” amorous: showing love, particularly sexual amor: love, loved

ous:
“The amorous feeling between them was very obvious from observing their interaction” amorphous: without definite shape or type a: away

morph: form, shape
ous:
“Mindy’s amorphous drawing received an A+ from the kindergarten teacher, even though she didn’t know what it was”

anachronistic: being out of correct chronological order ana: again, against, back, up
chron: time
istic:
“The movie’s anachronistic structure made it hard to follow” analgesic: something that reduces pain an: again, against, back, up alg: pain

“An analgesic was required after the volleyball player broke her ankle” anonymous: being unknown, unrecognized an: again, against, back, up

onym: name
“The critical letter was submitted anonymously to avoid detection” antithesis: the absolute opposite anti: against, opposed to, preventive

the: put “Good is the antithesis of evil” aquatic: relating to water aqu: water “Fish and other aquatic animals often possess gills to breathe underwater” atrophy: to wither away, decay

a: away
troph: feed, grow
“Physical therapy is needed for coma patients so their muscles don’t atrophy” cadence: rhythm, progression of sound cad: fall

“The drummer’s cadence kept the soldiers marching at the same pace” choreography: the arrangement of dances choreo: relating to dance

graph: draw, write
“The ballet’s choreography won it many awards” clemency: mercy clement: mild “Clemency is granted to the accused in the U.S. until they are proven guilty” cognizant: aware, mindful cogn: know

“If doctors are cognizant of child abuse they have to report it.”

consecrate: to dedicate something to a holy purpose
con: with, together
secr: sacred
“The consecrated ground was fought over by Muslims and Hindus” contemporaneous: existing during the same time

con: with, together
tempor: time
“Chelsea wanted to take Shakespeare and Chemistry but they were contemporaneous” debacle: a disastrous failure, disruption deb: owe “The Watergate debacle severely tarnished President Nixon’s reputation” defunct: no longer used or existing

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  funct: do
  “The defunct barn fell into disrepair because of weathering” deliberate: intentional, reflecting careful consideration

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  liber: free
  ate:
  “Deliberate acts of violence led to the breakdown of society and outbreak of civil war” delineate: to describe, outline, shed light on de: from, away from, removing, down lin: line

  ate:
  “Ryan delineated his paper in order to get his topic approved” denigrate: to belittle, diminish the opinion of

  de: from, away from, removing, down nigr: black
  ate:
  “It is important for their development to never denigrate children” depavity: wickedness

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  prav: crooked
  ity:
  “Many orthodox religions think American culture demonstrates the highest levels of depravity” desecrate: to violate the sacredness of a thing or place

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  secr: sacred
  ate:
  “The desecration of holy places is looked down upon in the international field” desiccate: dried up, dehydrated

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  sicc: dry “AHHH! There’s a desiccated bug on my floor!”

desolate: deserted, dreary, lifeless
  de: from, away from, removing, down
  sol: alone, only
  ate:
“Wanda was amazed at how desolate the desert was” despondent: feeling depressed, discouraged, hopeless

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  spond: a surety, guarantee, give assurance, promise solemnly
  ent:
  “After attempting the study guide Josh felt despondent” devious: not straightforward, deceitful

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  vi: way
  ous:
  “Devious tactics in advertising sometimes lead people to buy products they shouldn’t” diffuse: to scatter, thin out, break up di: negatin, removal, expulsion “The shade diffused the light of the lamp so it wasn’t quite as bright” fus: pour discordant: not agreeing, not in harmony with dis: negation, removal, expulsion

  cord: heart
  ant:
  “The discordant note stuck out in an otherwise flawless performance” discursive: rambling, lacking order dis: negation, removal, expulsion

  curs: run
  ive:
  “The discursive speech of the driver convinced the police officer he was drunk” dissuade: to persuade someone not to do something dis: negation, removal, expulsion suad: urge “Rebecca tried to dissuade her roommate from her risky behavior” dogmatic: aggressively and arrogantly certain about unproved principles dogmat: opinion, tenet “Children are often dogmatic in the parroting of their parents beliefs” dormant: sleeping, temporarily inactive dorm: sleep

  “When left untouched, a computer will go into a dormant state” dubious: doubtful, of uncertain quality dub: doubtful

  ious:
  “While many claimed the poem was perfect, many others were dubious” duplicity: crafty, dishonesty du: two plic: fold

“The principal made the student repeat her story multiple times and found no duplicity” dynamic: actively changing dynam: power
c: “The girl’s dynamic personality made it hard to be her friend sometimes” ebullient: extremely lively, enthusiastic
e: out, upward, completely, previous bull: bubble, flask “South Africans were ebullient when apartheid was ended” egregious: extremely bad e: out, upward, completely, enthusiastic greg: flock
“The performer told some egregious jokes that earned groans from the crowd” emollient: soothing
e: out, upward, completely, previous moll: soft “Lotion is an emollient for rough hands from hard work” etymology: the history of words, their origin and development etymo: true “Much of the etymology of the English language can be traced back to Germanic languages” excursion: trip or outing
ex: from, out
curs: run
“The boat took the tourists on an excursion around the bay” exorbitant: excessive
ex: from, out
orb: circle
“The jeweler charged an exorbitant fee for the bracelet” expunge: to obliterate, eradicate
ex: from, out
pung: prick
“When he turned 18, Richard asked the court to expunge his record of the minor offense in his file” fatuous: silly, foolish fatu: foolish, useless “The fatuous kids laughed all night” fractious: troublesome or irritable
fract: break
“She was fractious after not getting enough sleep” idolatrous: excessively worshipping one object or person ido: shape

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio “Early religions were occasionally marked by idolatrous worship, but most had multiple deities” impeccable: exemplary, flawless

im: not, without
pecc: sin
able: able, can do “The celebrity’s dress was impeccable, and all the fashion blogs agreed” incarnate: existing in the flesh, embodied

in:
carn: flesh
“After he died, people claimed to see Elvis Presley incarnate but he was assuredly dead” insurgent: one who rebels in: in, into, towards, inside

surg: rise “Insurgents in Liberia wanted to reform the government and end the human rights violations” interminable: without possibility of end

in: not, without termin: boundary, limit, end
able: able, can do
“The night class seemed interminable, but in reality it ended at 8:30” juxtaposition: the act of placing two things next to each other for implicit comparison juxta: beside, near posit: put ion:

“The juxtaposition of the colors with the interesting design were very interesting” laudatory: expressing admiration or praise laud: praise “Abraham Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address has earned him many laudatory comments lenient: demonstrating tolerance or gentleness leni: gentle “Melinda’s father was much more lenient in his punishments than her mother” obsequious: excessively compliant or submissive

ob: against sequ: follow

pac: peace “Drinking hot tea can often have a pacific affect” penultimate: next to last pen: almost ultim: farthest

ate:
“The penultimate book in the series just came out; it made Jose sad the series was almost over” philanthropic: charitable, giving phil: love, friendship

“Mother Theresa is often considered a philanthropic woman” primeval: original, ancient prim: first “It was amazing the primeval structures were still standing even after thousands of years” profligate: wasteful

pro: for, forward
flig: strike
ate:
“The profligate man would throw out perfectly wearable clothing” ruminate: to contemplate, reflect rumin: throat

“The book required a lot of rumination to understand the author’s message” somnolent: sleepy, drowsy

somn: sleep
“The somnolent girl eventually fell asleep at her desk” stupefy: to astonish, make insensible stup: wonder “The brilliance of the video stupefied the viewers” terrestrial: relating to the land terr: dry land “Terrestrial animals don’t like being put in water” tortuous: winding tort: twist

“The instructor’s lecture was tortuous and never made a final point” verbal: wordy, impaired by wordiness verb: word

“Edwin thought his verbal speech made him sound intelligent, but he was just wordy.”

venerate: to regard with respect or to honor vener: respectful
“The child venerated her uncle and wanted to be just like him” viscous: not free flowing, syrupy visc: thick

“The viscous syrup poured slowly out of the bottle” vocation: the work in which someone is employed, profession

voc: voice
“Mr. Johnson’s vocation was in the legal professions” vociferous: loud, boisterous

voc: voice
“The vociferous party was eventually broken up by a noise compliant”

vociferous: loud, boisterous
voc: voice
“The vociferous party was eventually broken up by a noise compliant” abandon adumbrate: to sketch out in a vague way

ad: movement to or toward; in addition to umbr: shade, shadow
“The novel’s entire plot was adumbrated on the back cover” aggregate: a whole or total ag:
  greg: flock
  “Leighton’s friends supported her, but she worried about gaining the trust of the aggregate group” approbation: praise ap:
  prob: try assiduous: hard-working, diligent as:
  sid: sit compunction: distress caused by feeling guilty
  com:
  punct: prick
  “After lying to her parents the girl was consumed with compunction” conflagration: great fire con:
  flag:
consummate: to complete a deal
  con:
  sum: take demagogue: a leader who appeals to a people’s prejudices
  dem: people
  “The demagogue represented a minority of the people with certain beliefs” demarcation: the marking of boundaries
  dem: people
  “After the World War’s foreign country’s demarcated Africa into various countries” disrepute: a state of being held in low regard dis:
  rep: crawl, creep effrontery: impudence, nerve, insolence ef:
  front: forehead
  “Blair had the effrontery to accuse her teacher of favoritism” equanility: composure
  equ: even, level
  anim: breath
  “Her equanimity at her friend’s funeral impressed everyone” ethereal: heavenly expurgate: to delete offensive or incorrect parts ex:
  purg: cleanse
“The editor expurgated the parts of the story he thought would be unpopular with readers” fetid: foul odor fet: stink

“The fetid lake made the hikers gag and cover their noses” flaccid: limp flacc: flabby “As the balloon animal deflated it became flaccid” gourmand: someone fond of eating and drinking gour: (it’s like gourmet)

  mand: hand
“It was a family of gourmands who ordered one of everything on the menu” hypocrisy: pretending to believe what one doesn’t hypo: under cris: judge “Hypocrisy is common among politicians who say one thing to get into office then do another once they are elected”

implacable: incapable of being appeased im: not plac: please
“The implacable 12 year old was the pickiest eater the daycare worker had encountered” impregnable: resistant to capture or penetration

  im: not incendiary: a person who agitates incessant: unending in: not cess: go

“The incessant superficial talk at parties bored Erin” incorrigible: incapable of correction

  in: not

indefatigable: incapable of defeat, failure, decay
  in: not
  de: from, away from, removing, down
  fat: say, speak “Sister Margaret was an indefatigable worker who was always volunteering at the local homeless shelter” indomitable: not capable of being conquered in: not dom: house

  able:
“While the army was clearly outnumbered, their indomitable spirit was hard to battle” inoculate: to introduce a microorganism, serum, or vaccine into an organism in order to increase immunity to illness
  in: in, on ocul: eye intimation: an indirect suggestion cogent: relevant, pertinent cog: know “While Daniel presented a cogent counter argument, Blake refused to listen to her opinion” seminal: strongly influencing later event semin: seed “What college someone attends is seminal to their future” redact
  re: back, again
  dact:
paragon para: beside, near synopsis
  syn: with exorbitant: unreasonably high, excessive
  ex: from, out
  orb: circle
  “The restaurant charge an exorbitant fee for food that wasn’t very good” meritorious: deserving praise, reward, esteem quotidian: daily, usual, customary quot: how many, how great “The quotidian chores of a maid bored Angelica who had bigger dreams.” neologism: a new word neo: new
  log: thought, word, speech
  “The neologism of the English language makes it very difficult to learn and keep up to date with” commendable profuse: spending or giving freely pro: for, forward
  fus: pour
  “The teacher embarrassed the student with profuse praise in front of the whole class” abundant: present in great quantity
  ab: away
  und: wave forestall: to prevent, hinder for: bore stall:
myriad: a huge number of things myri: countless “The sky was full of a myriad of stars” fabricate

facile: a remark that is too simple and shows a lack of careful thought or understanding fac: make “Because they played a team that was younger than them, their win was facile” mandatory: obligatory, compulsory

mand: hand
“Mandatory attendance is key to elementary education” perfunctory: performed merely as a routine duty per: thoroughly, through

funct: do “What once was a fun action for Penn, soon became perfunctory” pedagogue: a teacher ped: child “Nathaniel was an unlikely pedagogue but he had a way with children that got them to listen” notoriety: widely known

not: letter, note, paper
“The book acquired the author world wide notoriety” officious: meddlesome, aggressive in offering unwanted services of: against

“The mother was officious and constantly trying to take care of her child” punctilious: showing great attention to detail

punct: prick
“The punctilious man paid great attention when sculpting the marble.”

propriety: invectives: vehement, violent denunciation
in:
vect: carry “The fisherman screamed invectives when the bird stole his catch” umbrage: offense, giver of shade

umbr: shade, shadow
“The palm tree acted as an umbrage, keeping the sun out of the baby’s face” domicile: somebody’s home
dom: house
“Pam wished her permanent domicile was on the beach in Florida.”
dilapidated: in disrepair di:
lapid: stone
“It saddened Amy that her childhood home had fallen into disrepair”

Distribute, share, link, print as you wish. Brought to you by FreeTestPrep.com, provider of practice tests and review for the SAT, ACT and GED, and BWSEducationConsulting.com, Tutoring and Classes for the SAT, ACT, Math and Science in Columbus, Ohio claustrophobic: fear of enclosed spaces claus: close
  phob: fear
  “The claustrrhoobic man refused to go on elevators” strenuous redoubtable austere taciturn: silent by nature
  tac: be silent
  “The taciturn class didn’t even need to be told to quiet down” spectral: ghostly spect: watch, look at “The spectral figure when they were walking through the graveyard” impervious: not responsive, not letting something through im: not
  per: through, thoroughly “Harry’s rain coat was impervious to the rain” presumptuous: rude or arrogant
  pre: before sumpt: take “Nate was presumptuous and judged the rich girl before he knew her” pulchritude: beauty pulchr: beauty “Marilyn Monroe is often cited as an example of pulchritude” sated sat = cultivate satiated somnolent: sleepy, lacking activity somnn: sleep
  “The somnolent students weren’t participating in class” stagnate: not develop or make progress, stop flowing stagn: pool of standing water “The young girl started out top of her class, but lately her progress had become stagnate” stagnant: still, unmoving stagn: pool of standing waterau “The stagnant water began to gather scum on the top” undulating: move like waves und: waves
  “The dancer’s undulating made it look like he had no bones” physiognomy: facial features manifold: many and various salient: noticeable, striking Sali: jump

  “The salient points in the book were most talked about in reviews” propensity: tendency pro: for, forward, before, in front of pen: almost “Chuck had a propensity for bad behavior” malaise: feeling of illness, general feeling of discontent

  mal: bad, wretched
  “Her feeling of malaise was cured by a nap and a hot meal” volition: choosing, ability to choose

  vol: wish
  “He decided to go to school of his own volition even though he was sick” prestidigitation: a sleight of hand pres digit: finger “Magicians are masters of prestidigitation” veracious: truthful, honest

  ver: true
  “People who’s super ego controls them tend to be veracious” peregrination: a journey, to travel from place to place

  per: thoroughly, through egri: field “Amanda brought back souvenirs from her peregrination” infinitesimal: infinitely small in: not

  fin: end

perspicacity: shrewdness, astute
  per: thoroughly, through spic: look “Vanessa’s perspicacity helped her be a master of social situations” tepid: slightly warm, luke warm tep: be warm

“The pool water was tepid, so the manager turned the heat up” adverse: preventing success, harmful, unfavorable ad: movement to or toward vers: turn rhetorical rhe: flow confront: meet face to face
  con: with, together
  front: forehead
“Christina was confronted by Ellen after she lied to her about why she missed her party” exponent
  ex: from, out pon: put execute ex: from, out cut: skin peremptory
  per: through, thoroughly
  empt: buy antipathy: deep dislike anti: against, opposed to, preventative
  path: feel, hurt
“Avery, who grew up poor, had antipathy for people who didn’t value the education their parents paid for” peripheral: relating to the edge of something peri: around pher: bear, carry “The society spent much more time on peripheral topics rather than the meetings main agenda” dilapidated: in a state of disrepair because of age di: two lapid: stone
derogatory: showing a critical or disrespectful attitude
  de: from, away from, removing down
  rog: ask consequential: following as a result or effect
  con: with, together
  sequ: follow
“Teddy’s insurance consequentially increased after her car accident” gratitude: quality of being thankful grat: thank, please demoniac
  dem: people tenable: able to be maintained ten: hold
able: able

“After doing much research, Preston submitted a tenable paper to his English teacher” talisman salacious sal: salt duplicitious

du: two

plic: fold

obtruding: become noticeable in an unwelcome way

ob: against

trud: thrust

“Parents have a habit of obtruding on their children’s privacy” immolate: kill or offer as sacrifice im: not, negation

mol: grind aberration: departure from the normal

ab: away

err: stray

“Lexie’s scandalous behavior was an aberration compared to her normally reputable demeanor” abnegate: renounce or reject

ab: away

neg: say no

“It’s hard to abnegate your habits if you grew up with them” abrupt: unexpected, sudden

ab: away

rupt: break

“Abruptly, Sloane interrupted Owen’s story with derisive laughter” abscission: a cutting off

ab: away

sciss: split

“The doctor needed to perform an abscission on the appendix” achromatic: without color

a: not, without

chrom: color

“While the piece of metal used to be a sign, deterioration had left it achromatic” adherence: attachment, faithful support for a cause or political party or religion

ad: movement to or toward, in addition to her: cling

“Her adherence to the Democrats was rewarded with a full time position in the party” adhesion: action or process of adhering to a surface or object

ad: movement to or toward, in addition to hes: clinging “Meredith pressed firmly to ensure the adhesion to the wall would stay” adjacent: next to or adjoining something

ad: movement to or toward, in addition to

jac: lie

“In dorms, it is often easy to hear noise from adjacent rooms” adverb: refer to in speaking or writing

ad: movement to or toward, in addition to

vert: turn

“The speaker adverted to numerous famous politicians without saying anything original”

aggravate: make worse or more serious

ag: movement to or toward, in addition to

grav: heavy

“Because Ellis didn’t stop playing after she twisted her ankle, she aggravated the injury”

animadversion: criticism or censure anima: breath

ad: movement to or toward, in addition to

vers: turn

antecedent: a thing or event that existed before or logically precedes another

ante: before, in front of, prior to

ced: go

“Some antecedents to blues and jazz are in traditional songs of the slaves”

antenatal: before birth, during, relating to pregnancy

ante: before, in front of, prior to

nat: born

“Antenatal surgeries often increase the risk of complications later in life” apogee: farthest point in the orbit of the moon

apo: away from, separate, at the farthest point

“The astronomy class had to find the apogee of the moon on a map of its orbit”

apology: regretful acknowledgment of an offense or failure

apo: away from, separate, at the farthest point

log: thought, word, speech

“While she said she was sorry, Sandra’s apology was not heard”

apostasy: abandonment of religious beliefs

apo: away from, separate, at the farthest point

“The suffering in Rwanda lead many to apostasy”

apothecary: person who prepares and sells medicine and drugs

apo: away from, separate, at the farthest point

theca: case

“In some third world countries, there are still apothecaries used as doctors” apotheosis: highest point in the development of something

apo: away from, separate, at the farthest point

the: put

“The apotheosis of the doctor’s career was when he found a cure to a communicable disease” apposite: apt in the circumstances or in relation to something ap: movement to or toward, in addition to
  posit: put “Spencer had to go shopping for an apposite outfit for the funeral” aspirant: a person with ambitions to achieve something a: away
  spir: breathe aspiration a: away
  spir: breathe
assimilate: take in and understand fully as: movement to or toward, in addition to simil: likeness, trust, group “Aria took steps to assimilate into her new school which focused a lot more on popularity than her previous one” dissimilar: not the same, different dis: negation, removal, expulsion
  simil: likeness, trust, group “The friends were so dissimilar it was amazing their relationship lasted so long” facsimile: an exact copy
  fac: make
  simil: likeness, trust, group “It was such a beautiful painting, Hannah wanted a facsimile of it” similar: having resemblance in appearance
  simil: likeness, trust, group
  “The girls were furious that their dresses for the dance were so similar” simile: figure of speech comparing things of different kinds
  simil: likeness, trust, group “King Richard was brave like a lion which earned him the moniker Richard the Lion Heart” similitude: state of being similar
  simil: likeness, trust, group
  “The teacher called in the students because there was a high level of similitude between their assignments” assonance: poetic tool using a repeating vowel sound
  as: movement to or toward, in addition to son: sound “Dylan Thomas showed his master of assonance in his poem ‘Do Not Go Gently Into That Good Night” assonate
  as: movement to or toward, in addition to son: sound
aton:
a:
  ton:
audacious: willingness to take risks aud: hearing, listening, sound “Many called King Suleyman’s attempt to capture Vienna audacious” audible: able to be heard

aud: hearing, listening, sound
“The phone was so far away it’s ring was barely audible” auditory: relating to the sense of hearing

aud: hearing, listening, sound
“The band was so bad, their music felt like an auditory assault” aura: distinctive atmosphere of something aur: relating to gold or gold-colored “There was an aura of good feelings in the classroom because the weather was so nice!”

auricle: structure resembling an ear or an earlobe auri: relating to the ear “No auricle mechanical device works as well as a real ear” auricular:

auri: relating to the ear

autocracy: system of government in which one person has absolute power auto: self, directed from within ocracy: government, rule, authority “Prior to reformations, England had a autocracy where the King had all the power” automaton: essentially a robot

auto: self, directed from within “Recently scientists have invented automaton vacuums” autonomous: self-government auto: self, directed from within

nom: arrangement, law
“Through the Revolutionary War, the United States became autonomous” autopsy auto: self, directed from within nom: arrangement, law

avocation
a:
voc: voice

beatify: make blissfully happy beat: bless “John’s marriage proposal beatified Miranda” beatitude: supreme blessedness

beat: bless “After a long soak in the hot tub, I was in a state of beatitude” bellicose: demonstrating aggression and willingness to fight belli: war

“Some bellicose people will fight over anything” belligerent: hostile

belli: war
“The belligerent student argued relentlessly with the professors opinion” cadence: modulation or inflection of the voice
cad: fall
campaign: series of military operations intended to achieve a certain objective camp: field candid: truthful, straightforward cand: glowing, iridescent candor:
cand: glowing, iridescent
cantata: medium length piece of music with vocal solos cant: sing
“The cantata had a beautiful melody but the harmony was what really made the piece” cataclysm: large scale and violent natural event
cata: down
“People who were directly involved in Hurricane Katrina felt the event was a cataclysm” cataract: a large waterfall, a downpour
cata: down
“Niagara falls is one of the world’s biggest cataracts” catastrophe: an event causing great and sudden damage or suffering
cata: down
troph: grow, feed
“When Israel bombed Egypt in the June War it was a catastrophe” centenary: of or relating to a hundredth anniversary cent: hundred
“The town had a centenary festival to celebrate its 100th year” conjugal: relating to marriage or the relationship between husband and wife con: with, together
jug: yoke
“Young girls often dream of their wedding and their subsequent conjugal days” conjuration: a link or connection between things
con: with, together
jug: yoke
“And, but and or are conjugations and join sentences that could stand alone but are better together” contagion: the communication of disease from person to person
con: with, together
tag: touch
“The rumors of school closing for snow spread quicker than a contagion among the high schoolers” cornucopia: ornamental container shaped like a horn corn: horn
“The cornucopia was filled with Fall fruits and used as a centerpiece” cosmetic:

  cosm: universe

cosmogony: branch of science dealing with origins of the universe
  cosm: universe
  “There are various theories dealing with cosmogony, one of the most popular is the big bang” cosmos: the universe viewed as well-ordered and whole

  cosm: universe
  “The cosmos is full of many stars and planets that shine brightly in the night sky”

culpable: deserving blame
  culp: blame, fault
  “While not all the country’s problems could be blamed on the new President, he was culpable for some of them”

culprit: person responsible for a crime
  culp: blame, fault
  “The police were having trouble finding the culprit of the recent robbery” cursive: writing with joined characters

  curs: run
  “Her writing was so pushed together it looked like cursive” cursory: hasty and therefore not thorough or detailed

  curs: run
  “The professor gave a cursory glance to the students papers and let his TA actually grade them”

Decamp: depart suddenly
  De: from, away from, removing, down
  camp: field
  “The hikers had to decamp before the rain hit” decapitate: cut the head off of

  de: from, away from, removing, down
  capit: head
  “During the French Revolution, many people were decapitated as a punishment.”

deciduous: shedding leaves annually
  de: from, away from, removing, down
  cid: fall “Deciduous trees shed their leaves in the fall” declarative: of the nature of or making a declaration

  de: from, away from, removing, down clar: clear “The declarative speech made by the senator explained some new laws” defensible: justifiable by argument

  de: from, away from, removing, down fens: strike
  “The castle was easily defensible as it had an ocean on one side and mountains on another” deformity: malformation, misshapen

  de: from, away from, removing, down
form: shape
“The ceramic pot had some deformities after it was fired” defraud
de: from, away from, removing, down
defraud: having lost the physical, mental, or moral qualities considered normal
de: from, away from, removing, down
gen: race, kind, birth def: from, away from, removing, down defhydrate: loss of large amounts of water from the body
de: from, away from, removing, down hydr: water “Walking around in the desert for a few hours severally dehydrated the hiker” denude: strip something of its covering
de: from, away from, removing, down
nud: naked “Oranges have to be denuded before they can be eaten” deponent
de: from, away from, removing, down
pon: put desperado: a desperate or reckless person
de: from, away from, removing, down
sper: hope
“The desperado stole money from the bank to pay his bills” desultory
de: from, away from, removing, down diacritical dia: apart through crit: judge
diaphanous
dia: apart, through discomfit: make uneasy or embarrassed dis: not, negation
com: with, together
“The disagreement between their parents made the whole family feel discomfit” discomfort: lack of physical comfort
dis: not, negation
com: with, together
fort: strong
“The bitterly cold wind put Eliza in a state of discomfort” discursive: digressing from subject to subject dis: not, negation
curs: run
“The discursive teacher was hard to follow during lecture” dishabille: state of being only partly or scantily clothed dis: not, negation
hab: have “In Risky Business, Tom Cruise was in dishabille” dissentious: dissenting
dis: not, negation
senti: feel dissever: divide or sever something
dis: not, negation
sever: stern, strict, serious
“The duckling was dissevered from his family when he couldn’t hop over the curb” divag: wander
“The tour leaders divagation distracted everyone from the lion that was very close to the truck” divisor
di:
vis: see
divulge: make known
di:
vulg: common, crowd
“The chatty girl divulged her best friend’s secret to the whole third grade” dogmatic: inclined to lay down principles as incontrovertibly truw
dogmat: opinion, tenet “The priest was dogmatic in his sermons” domesticity: home or family life
dom: house
doublet dramatist dubious: hesitating or doubting dub: doubtful
“While the President said the war was over, many citizens were still dubious” effeminacy: men with feminine qualitites ef: from, out femin: women, female “Brad’s effeminacy was a product of having 5 sisters” effervesce
ef: from, out fer: carry effluvium: an unpleasant or harmful odor
ef: from, out
flu: flow

“The effluvium of the sewer made people plug their noses when they walked by”

eugenic: pertaining to or causing improvement in offspring produced

eu: well, good
gen: race, kind, birth

“The Nazis in Germany were attempted to practice eugenics by weeding out those they thought weak” excavate: make a hole by digging

ex: from, out cav: hollow

“The children excavated the sandbox with plastic shovels” expectorate: cough, spit out phlegm from throat or lung

ex: from, out
pector: chest

“Emma expectorated often while she had her respiratory infection” extensive: covering or affecting a large area

ex: from, out
tens: stretch, strain

“The exam covered an extensive amount of material” extenuate: make guilt seem less serious or more forgivable

ex: from, out
tenu: slender, thin

“Mary’s life situation extenuated the circumstances of her mistake” ferocious: savagely fierce feroc: fierce

“The ferocious lion growled and scared the children” flippant fluent: able to express oneself easily

flu: flow

“After studying the language for four hard years, Lily was finally fluent in French” foible folio: leaf number in a printed book

foli: leaf

“Foliage:

Foli: leaf

“The foliage in spring is a beautiful array of greens” forgery

sacrifice: act of slaughtering an animal or person or surrendering a possession as an offering to God sacr: sacred

“The Aztecs practiced human sacrifice to appease their gods” sacrilege: violation or misuse of what is regarded as sacred “Working on the Sabbath is sacrilege in Judaism”

“Tricia played amateur soccer because she loved the game”

“The boy did his friends homework because of the amatory feelings he had toward her”

“The girl was enamored with her professor and worked hard to do well in his class”

“The Kalahari desert is an arid climate and cannot grow crops”

“The girl was crouched behind a bush but still felt her position was vulnerable”

“Young people often feel their youth makes them invulnerable”

“The professor had taught in many universities and was a veteran in the field of education”

“The professor spoke so fast it was hard to write what he said verbatim”

“The hotel had a sign that said ‘vacancy’ indicating that they had rooms available”

“Urban: relating to a city or town” dystrophy: impaired nourishment of a body part dys: badly, ill

troph: feed, grow

“The ailing child suffered from muscular dystrophy” torque: twisting force that tends to cause rotation

torque: twist

“If you apply too much torque to a screw it’ll strip it” ectomy: act of cutting out

tom: cut

atom: basic unit or a chemical element

tom: cut

“The atom got its name from scientists thinking it was the smallest unit and unable to be cut”

tome: a book

tom: cut

distinct: recognizably different in nature

stinct: apart

“The girl’s perfume was distinct from the others at the dance” distinguish: recognize or treat someone as different stingu: apart

“It was easy to distinguish Cati’s roots from her dyed hair” semantics: branch of linguistics and logic concerned with meaning sema: sign

“People often argue over semantics without really accomplishing anything” eruptions: a sudden outpouring

rupt: break

“rupture: break or burst suddenly

rupt: break

“The bubble floated for several minutes before rupturing” corroboration:

robor: oak, strength

antonym: a word opposite in meaning to another ant: against, opposed to, preventive oynm: name

“Big is an antonym of little” synonym: word or phrase that means exactly or nearly the same as another

syn: with

onym: name

“Cold is synonymous with chilly” mortuary: a funeral home or morgue

mort: death

“The mortuary was very adept at dealing with family grief” heuristic: enabling a person to discover or learn something for themselves heur: find “Heuristic teaching is the most effective for teaching children” prohibition: action of forbidding something pro: before in front of, for, forward hib: have “The mother issued a prohibition on her children that they couldn’t leave the house” habit: a settled or regular tendency
  hab: have “Amanda has a habit of biting her nails” global: of or relating to the whole world glob: sphere
  “Serena had a global view and could see the interconnections between issues” globule: small round particle of a substance
  glob: sphere
  “Mrs. Carpenter dropped a globule of cookie dough onto the baking sheet” frigid: very cold in temperature frig: cold
  “The weather was so frigid, Jake had to wear a coat and hat” fragment: a small part broken or separated from something frag: break
  “Harry picked up a small piece of reflective material and then realized it was a fragment of a mirror” frangible: fragile, brittle frang: break
  “The frangible vase was off limits to the children” volitive: willed action
  vol: wish “Andrea was a volitive person and often worked hard to get what she wanted” Volant: able to fly or glide Vol: fly
  “The glider made Patrick volant and he was able to hang in the air” Vivisection: ruthlessly sharp and detailed criticism or analysis Viv: live
  Sect: cut
  “The professor offered a vivisection of the student’s work and left many notes” Vivify: enliven or animate
  Viv: live
  “The movie from her childhood always vivified Christine” Vivacity: characterized by high spirits and animation
  Viv: live
  “The child displayed such vivacity that everyone around her was instantly cheered” Triplicate: existing in three copies Tri: three
Plic: please
“The CEO asked his secretary to produce all documents in triplicate, a copy for him, one for her and one for the client”

Transfusion:
Trans: across
Fus: pour

Transferable: transferred or made over to the possession of another person Trans: across
Fer: carry
“The money was transferable between the accounts”

Terminus: final point in space or time
Termin: boundary, limit, end
“The Mayans thought the terminus of the world would occur in 2012”

Terminate: bring to an end
Termin: boundary, limit, end
“Rufus terminated his employment with the ice cream parlor”

Sibilate: utter with a hissing sound Sibil: hiss
“The girl’s lisp caused her to sibilate on her s’s”

Presentiment: an intuitive feeling about the future
Pre: before
Senti: feel
“Lily had a presentiment that something bad was going to happen”

Precursor: person of thing that comes before another of the same kind, forerunner Pre: before
Curs: run
“High blood pressure is often a precursor to later heart problems”

Plenipotentiary: one with full power of independent action on behalf of one’s government Plen: full
Pot: drink
“The British government sent a plenipotentiary to India to try to negotiate with the locals”

Planisphere: map formed by projection of a sphere on a flat surface Plan: flat
Spher: ball
“The planisphere showed accurately the relative distance between countries but not their size”

Philogynist: a person who likes or admires women Phil: love, friendship
Gyn: woman
“The philogynist was often accused of being a feminist”

Philologist: studier of literature
Phil: love, friendship
Log: thought, word, speech
“The philologist had an extensive vocabulary and knowledge base” Pertinacious: holding firmly to an opinion
Per: thoroughly, through Tin: hold
“The scientist was pertinacious even though there were many studies proving him wrong”

Percolate: filter gradually through a porous surface
Per: thoroughly, through
Col: strain
“The water percolated through the strainer”

Opprobrium: harsh criticism or censure Op: against Prob: try
“Jared’s parents’ opprobrium of his actions scared him out of misbehaving again”

Officious: assertive of authority in an annoyingly domineering way Of: against
Fic: make
“The presenter was officious in how he portrayed his findings”

Octogenarian: person who is from 80 to 89 years old Oct: eight
Gen: race, kind, birth
“The octogenarian was started to develop health problems”

Mnemonics: study and development of systems for improving and assisting memory Mne: memory
“The tutor specialized in mnemonics which made him skilled at helping students”

Misanthropic: believing the worst of human nature and motives Mis: hate
Anthrop: human
“The misanthropic man had become cynical after years of observing how humans treat each other”

Mercantile: of or relating to trade, commerce, commercial Merc: reward, wages, hire
“The mercantile man was very good at negotiating with people”

Mellifluous: sweet or musical, pleasant to hear Mell: honey
Flu: flow
“Kwon’s mellifluous voice instantly drew people to him”

Manumission: formal act of freeing from slavery Manu: hand
Miss: send “Abraham Lincoln helped with the manumission of African Americans in the United States”

Maltreat: treat cruelly or with violence
Mal: bad wretched
“Because the owner so maltreated his dog, an animal protection group took it away”

Interrogate: ask questions of Inter: among, between
Rog: ask
“The mother interrogated her son about why he broke curfew”

Insuppressible: impossible to control
In: not, negation
Press: press
“Kristin’s feelings of hatred for her math class were insuppressible”

Insulate: protect by using a material that prevents the loss of heat or intrusion of sound Insul: island
“The band insulated their practice space so they wouldn’t annoy their neighbors”

Insuperable: impossible to overcome
In: not, negation
Super: above, beyond “The mountains created an insuperable obstacle for the truck”

Insinuate: suggest or hint
In: in, on Sinu: to draw a line “Jacob didn’t actually call Izzie a name, but he insinuated its meaning”

Insentient: incapable of feeling or understanding things In: not, negations
Senti: feel
“Doctors sometimes become insentient because they are constantly surrounded by sadness”

Inquisition: a period of prolonged and intensive questioning or investigation
In: in, on Quisit: search, see “The principal’s inquisition got no results because the students wouldn’t cooperate”

Extort: obtain by force, threats or unfair means
Ex: from, out
Tort: twist
“Her powers of manipulation led her to extort others to get what she wanted”

Extensible: capable of being protruded or stretched or opened out
Ex: from, out
Tens: stretch, strain
“The porch had an extensible covering that would be used when it rained”

Extemporaneous: spoken or done without preparation
Ex: from, out
Tempor: time
“Even though his speech was extemporaneous, it still got his point across”

Euphemism: mild or indirect word or expression for one too harsh or blunt Eu: well, good
“Kelly used euphemisms to describe her feelings toward her over bearing mother”

Euphoniouos: pleasing to the ear
Eu: well, good
Phon: sound
“The euphonious chord progression made the song a number 1 hit”

Distensible:
  Dis:
  Tens: stretch, strain
  “The distensible clay was soon stretched over the entire table”

Disparage: regard or represent as being of little worth Dis: not, negation
  Para: beside, near
  “The girl disparaged her teacher every time she received a low grade”

Corpulent: fat
  Corp: body
  “The corpulent man ordered five courses at dinner!”

Collapsible: able to be folded into a small space
  Col: strain
  Laps: slide, slip
  “The collapsible chair folded up so small it fit in the corner”

Carnage: killing of a large number of people
  Carn: flesh
  “The carnage of the video game made many people think it would affect kids negatively”

Belligerent: hostile, aggressive
  Belli: war
  Ger: bear, carry
  “Zac was belligerent when he felt threatened by others”

Elapse: pass or go by Laps: slide, slip
  “Time elapsed so quickly during vacation”

Relapse: suffer deterioration after a period of improvement
  Re: back, again
  Lapse: slide, slip “Gina had been doing so well with her cancer treatment, but sadly she relapsed”

Stringent: strict, precise, exacting string: upright, stiff “Ariel was stringent in her rules for her children”

Apposition: the positioning of things or things being side by side Ap: movement to or toward, in addition to Posit: put
  “A nervous habit of hers was to apposition the knick knacks on her shelf”

Appertain: relate to, concern
  Ap: movement to or toward, in addition to
  Per: thoroughly, through “Dan appertained the two historical situations”

Antipodes: direct opposite of something Anti: against, opposed to, preventive
Pod: foot
“Vanessa’s cool room was antipodes of the summer heat”

Annalist: chronicler, historian
Ann: year, yearly
“The annalist chronicled the events of 9/11 for future generations to read about”

Anhydrous: containing no water
An: not, without Hyrd: water
“The desert is often thought of as anhydrous”

Adversity: difficulties, misfortune Ad: movement to or toward, in addition to Vers: turn
“Jennifer worked hard to overcome the adversity her condition created”

Aesthetic: concerned with beauty Aesthet: feeling, sensation
“The art dealer was concerned with the aesthetic quality over price”

Camaraderie: mutual trust, and friendship among people Amar: love, loved
“The camaraderie between the teammates made them play flawlessly”

Compassion: sympathetic pity and concern for misfortunes of others
Com: with, together
Pass: pace, step
“The nurse’s compassion caused her to be popular among patients”

Condescending: acting in a way that betrays a feeling
Con: with, together
De: from, away from, removing, down
Scend: climb
“Mr. Marley’s condescending tone made people feel bad about themselves”

Conformist: a person who conforms to accepted behaviors
Con: with, together
Form: shape
“Often times when starting a new job, it is necessary for people to conform to certain customs”

Empathy: the ability to understand and share the feelings of another Em: buy
Path: feel, hurt
“Psychologists are often very adept at using empathy to help their clients”

Emulate: match or surpass Emul: striving to equal, rivaling “Alli emulated her sister very much and worked hard to get as good of grades as her”

Evanescent: soon passing out of sight, memory, or existence
E: from, out
Van: empty, vain, idle “While at first the break up was quite difficult it soon became evanescent”

Fortitude: courage in pain
Fort: strong
“Her fortitude in the face of her surgery was admirable”

Inconsequential: not important or significant
In: in, on, not, negation
Con: with, together
Sequ: follow
“Jackson was full of inconsequential trivia that failed to interest his co-workers”

Longevity: long life Long: long
Vit: life
“To ensure the longevity of your toaster, you must follow all the care instructions”

Orator: a public speaker Or: mouth
“The orator was very good at persuading people over to his beliefs”

Pretentious: attempting to impress by affecting greater importance
Pre: before
Tent: hold
“Michael’s pretentious nature tended to make others think he thought he was better than himself”

Rancorous: deep seated resentment Ranc: rancidness, grudge, bitterness “The politician’s speech made many people rancorous”

Reclusive avoiding company of others
Re: again, back
Clus: close
“Blair’s reclusive nature caused her to have very few friends”

Renovation: act of improving or restoring Re: again, back
Nov: new
“The houses renovations tripled its value”

Submissive: meekly, obedient or passive Sub: below
Miss: send “Submissive people are often those most vulnerable to hazing”

Substantiate: provide evidence to support or prove the truth of Sub: below
St: stand
“Olivia claimed she had been to France but the school was unable to substantiate that information”

Superficial: existing or occurring at or on the surface Super: above, over Fic: make “Her apology was very superfluous and Mackenzie could tell her ‘friend’ didn’t mean it”

Superfluous: unnecessary
- Super: above, over
- Flu: flow
  “Jenny’s extra credit work was superfluous since she already had an A in the course”

Surreptitious: kept secret because it would not be approved of
- Su: below
- Rept: crawl, creep “Dan was surreptitious when he went to see Amalia because he knew his friends would disapprove”

Tactful: having or showing a sense of what is fitting and considerate
- Tact: touch
  “Chuck was tactful in telling his mother what he thought of her new boyfriend”

Venerable: accorded a great deal of respect
- Vener: respectful
  “Cotillion is a venerable process, especially in New England”

Query: a question
- Quer: search, seek “Tripp’s query confused the reporter”

Nihilism: rejection of all religious and moral principles
- Nihil: nothing
  “Nihilists are often highly individualistic and conform to no set of beliefs”

Bathos: insincere, or grossly sentimental pathos
- Batho: deep, depth
  “We were disappointed by the film’s bathos, the critics said it was deep and stimulating”

Ineluctable: unable to be resisted or avoided
- In: in, on, not, negation
- e: from, out
- luc: bright, light
  “The cake looked so delicious it was ineluctable!”

Symptomatic: serving as a symptom or sign
- Sym: with
- Pto: fall
  “Milo’s runny nose was symptomatic of the flu”

Oblivious
- Ob: against

Non sequitur: a conclusion or statement that does not logically follow from the previous argument or statement
- Non: not
- Sequ: follow
  “The comedian used non sequiturs to get laughs from the crowd that even they weren’t expecting”

Supine: lying face upward
- Supin: lying back
  “The patient reclined to a supine position in order to be examined by the doctor”

Punctilio: fine, or petty point of conduct or procedure
Punct: prick

Chronic: persisting for a long time
  Chron: time
  “Eva’s chronic heartburn led her to explore other treatment options”

Bibulous: excessively fond of drinking alcohol Bib: drink
  “Nate was bibulous and spent much of his weekends at bars”

Viable: capable or working successfully; feasible
  Vi: way
  “The skin graft wasn’t viable so the doctor couldn’t use it”

Decimate: kill, destroy, remove large percentage of Decim: tenth part
  “The dog decimated its toy quite quickly even though it was supposed to be tough”

Pejorative: expressing contempt or disapproval Pejor: worse
  “Brittany was pejorative toward her mother and spoke disrespectfully to her”

Devious: showing a skillful use of underhanded tactics to achieve goals
  De: from, away from, removing, down
  Vi: way
  “Connie was devious in her take down of her nemesis”

Saturnine: slow and gloomy
  Sat: cultivate
  “The saturnine day made everyone feel a little down”

Deprecate: express disapproval of De: from, away from, removing, down
  Prec: pray
  “Kurt’s self-deprecating nature made others think he had low self esteem”

Equity: quality of being fair and impartial
  Equ: even, level
  “Everyone valued the principal’s equity in dealing with conflicts between students”

Desuetude: state of disuse
  De: from, away from, removing, down
  Su: sew
  “The desuetude shack had many urban legends surrounding it”

Affront: an action or remark that causes outrage or offense Af: movement to or toward, in addition to Front: forehead
  “Noah’s commentary on the basketball’s performance was affronting”

Germane: relevant to a subject under consideration Ger: bear, carry
  Man: flow
  “The teacher requested that all discussion points be germane to the topic at hand” Reputed: according to general belief
   Re: again, back
   Put: prune, reckon
   “Coach Smith was reputed to be the best basketball instructor in the country”

Utopian: modeled on or aiming for a state in which everything is perfect U: Top: place
   “Communism was supposed to create a utopian society but in most cases it fell to corruption”

Indictment: a formal charge or accusation of a serious crime
   In: in, on, no, negation
   Dict: say, speak
   “At the trial, the indictment was read to the accused”

Inordinate: unusually or disproportionately large
   In: in, on, no, negation Ordin: order
   “Danielle spent an inordinate amount of time with her boyfriend”

Concatenation: the state of being linked together as in a chain
   Con: with, together
   Caten: chain
   “Many view time as concatenate, with one event effecting another”

Preempt: take action in order to prevent from happening
   Pre: before
   Empt: buy
   “Studying is a way to preempt failing”

Emanate: issue or spread out from E: Man: flow, stay
   “The steam emanated from the boiling pot”

Requite: make appropriate return for Re: back, again
   “Emma’s love was requited by her fiancée as indicated when he proposed”

Insatiable: impossible to satisfy
   In: in, on, not, negation
   Sat: cultivate
   “After going into overtime in the game, Bryce’s thirst was insatiable”

Exacerbate: make worse
   Ex: from, out
   Ac: sharp, pointed
   “The pain of Grace’s bruise was exacerbated when Kat poked it”

Nascent: just coming into existence Nasc: born
   “The idea of green building is nascent in the United States”

Primordial: existing at or from the beginning of time
Prim: first
"The sixth grade had been using the same primordial book since the 1960’s"

Reverberate: be repeated several times as an echo
 Re: back, again
Verb: word
 "The sound of her yell reverberated through the forest"

Consternation: feelings of anxiety or dismay Con: with, again
Stern: spread, strew
 "Finn’s consternation was interfering with his performance at school"

Recondite: little known
 Re: back, again
 Con: with, together
 "Lea was aware of many recondite facts about Spain"

Inception: establishment or starting point of something
 In: in, on, not, negation Cept: hold, take
 "The inception of the French club demonstrated the globalization of the school"

Prerogative: a right or privilege exclusive to a particular individual Pre: before
 Rog: ask
 "It is a parent’s prerogative to question everything their children do"

Millennium: period of a thousand years Mill: thousand Enn: year, yearly
 "Many were scared that the new millennium would cause technological devices to shut down"

Supplicate: ask or beg for something earnestly Su: sew
 Plic: please
 "He supplicated himself to his girlfriend for forgiveness"

Fractious: easily irritated
 Fract: break
 "Shannon’s fractious demeanor made many people feel uncomfortable around her"

Prognosticate: foretell or prophesy
 Pro: before, in front of, for, forward
 "The gypsy prognosticated that Rachel would get into Yale"

Disconsolate: without consolation or comfort
 Dis: not, negation
 Con: with, together
 Sol: sun, comfort, soothe, alone, only
 "Stephen was disconsolate when he heard about the car accident"

Relegate: consign or dismiss to an inferior rank or position
 Re: back, again
Leg: law
“The CEO relegated more menial tasks to employers lower in the company”

Definitive: done or reached decisively and with authority
De: from, away from, removing, down
Fin: end
“Liam went through many hours of work before reaching a definitive answer to his question”

Culpable: deserving blame
Culp: blame, fault
Able: able “Shaun was culpable in the cheating fiasco”

Infraction: a violation or infringement of a law
In: in, on Fract: break
“Hosting underage drinking parties is a major legal infraction”

Sedentary: tending to spend much time seated Sed: apart, settle, calm, sit “Elderly people often become sedentary which leads to further health problems”

Ostensible: stated or appearing to be true, but not necessarily so Os: against
Tens: stretch, strain
“Laura’s ostensible motive was to be good friend but she really wanted information for gossip”

Expatriate: speak or write in detail
Ex: from, out
Pat: be open
“Mandy expatiated the science behind her research project”

Infirmity: physical or mental weakness
In: in, on, not, negation Firm: fix, settle “Cam’s infirmity made many question whether she was suitable for the coaching position”

Turgid: swollen and distended or congested Urg: work
“The sports injury left Sherry’s fingers extremely turgid to the point where she couldn’t bend them”

Profligate: recklessly extravagant
Pro: before, in front of, for, forward
Flig: strike
“Bryan was a profligate partier, and his friends often worried about his health”

Poltroon: a coward
Pol: pole
“The poltroon was afraid to stand up for himself against his oppressors”

Risible: such as to provoke laughter Ris: laugh
“Jesse’s risible jokes had the whole room crying with laughter” Lucubration: study, meditation
Luc: bright, light
“Emme’s lucubration made her able to excel at the country’s top college”

Obloquy: strong public criticism
ob: against
Loqu: speak
“Sue’s obloquy made many people turn against her”

Palliate: make less severe or unpleasant without removing the cause Pall: be pale “Terminally ill patients often receive palliative treatment since the can’t be cured”

Verisimilitude: appearance of being true or real Ver: true
Simil: likeness, trust, group
“The play was supposed to be based on the actress’s life but its verisimilitude was questioned by many experts”

Solecism: breach of good manners
Sol: alone, only “Artie’s solecism made many people dislike him”

Aficionado: person who is very knowledgeable and enthusiastic about an activity
A: movement to or toward Fic: make “Shelby was a dance aficionado, and was always pleased to share her knowledge with others”

Peccadillo: a small relatively unimportant offense or sin
Pecc: sin
“Will’s peccadillo was barely punished by the principal”

Gratis: without charge, free Grat: thanks, please “Because the food took so long to come out, the restaurant gave it to them gratis”

Traumatic: emotionally disturbing or distressing Traum: wound
“Brittany often relived her traumatic car wreck in her nightmares”

Exculpate: show or declare that someone is not guilty of wrongdoing
Ex: from, out
Culp: blame, fault
“Brandon was exculpated of the accusation that he had tracked mud into the house”

Belabor: argue or elaborate in excessive detail Be: bless
Labor: toil
“Gene belabored the plan to his teammates”

Largesse: generosity in bestowing money or gifts upon others Larg: large
“JK Rowling’s largesse for charities made her drop from the top earners in the world”

Asseverate: assert, state categorically
As: movement to or toward, in addition to Sever: stern, strict, serious
   “Tina asseverated that she didn’t cheat on her exam”

Attenuate: reduce the force, effect or value of At: movement to or toward, in addition to Tenu: slender, thin
   “Too much water in the mix can attenuate the dying power of henna”

Cognizant: having knowledge or being aware of Cogn: know
   “Elodie was cognizant of her opponent’s ability but it didn’t intimidate her”

Abstruse: difficult to understand Abs: away
   Trus: thrust
   “The abstruse math problem puzzled all the test takers”

Depraved: morally corrupt
   De: from. away from, removing, down
   Prav: crooked
   “Tuck’s depraved behavior led to his arrest”

Minutiae: trivial detail of something Min: less, smaller “Subtle minutiae made the novel a top seller”

Exhume: dig out from ground
   Ex: from, out
   Hum: ground
   “The archaeologists exhumed the bones of a dinosaur”

Intermittent: occurring at irregular intervals, not steady Inter: among, between Mitt: send “The intermittent beeping was very distracting to the students”

Increment: an increase or addition
   In: in, on, not, negation
   Cre: make
   “I split up my reading assignment into more doable increments”

Interpolate: insert between fixed points Inter: among, between
   Pol: pole
   “Dr. Darcy interpolated his lesson with bits of humor”

Impeccable: in accordance with the highest standards or propriety Im: in, on, not, negation
   Pecc: sin
   “Jane’s impeccable behavior made her really popular with her friend’s parents”

Arrogate: take or claim something for oneself without justification Ar: movement to or toward, in addition to Rog: ask
“The king arrogated all the surrounded land into his kingdom”

Concomitant: naturally accompanying or associated
Con: with, together
Com: with, together
“Natural ability concomitant with hard work often leads to success”

Deride: express contempt for, ridicule
De: from, away from, removing, down
Rid: laugh
“Mike derided his opponent in the election”

Expunge: erase or remove completely
Ex: from, out
Pung: prick
“Diana had to have her record expunged before she could get a job”

Impetuous: acting or done quickly and without thought or care
Im: in, on, not, negation
Pet: strive towards “Lana walked impetuously down the street, carelessly bumping into many people”

Impalable: unable to be placated, relentlessly Im: in, on, not, negation
Plac: please
“The parent had trouble cooking food for their implacable child”

Ingenuous: innocent and unsuspecting
In: in, on, not, negation
Gen: race, kind, birth
“Britney’s ingenuous nature made her trust everyone”

Inveterate: having a particular habit, activity or interest so long established and unlikely to change
In: in, on, not, negation Veter: old “Pat’s routine was inveterate and had been for many years”

Multifarious: many and or various types Mult: many, much “Becky’s multifarious interests in addition to her high test scores helped her get into an Ivy league college”

Odious: extremely unpleasant, repulsive Od: hate
“Quinn found washing dishes to be an odious task”

Pellucid: translucently clear Pell: drive
Luc: bright, light
“The pellucid window cast a green shadow on the floor”

Perfidious: deceitful and untrustworthy
Per: thoroughly, through Fid: faith, trust “Lily’s perfidious nature made it hard for people to get close to her” Prescient: having knowledge before something occurs Pre: before
  Sci: know
  “Marsha was prescient about her team winning state” Solipsistic: the philosophical theory that the self is all that you know to exist
  sol: alone, only sist: cause to stand “Many people find solipsistic thinkers to be self-centered” apocalypse: complete, final destruction of the world calyp: cover “Mayans predicted that the apocalypse would occur in the year 2012”